Favored Tradesmen Out of Softball Tourney

Playing tight, heads up softball all-the-way, Sylvan Park's first time Northwestern Stars bounced Building Trade School out of the Baltimore Metropolitan version of the State Softball tournament with a 1-2 upset.

The Tradesmen, champions of the Industrial and Trade School League in 1949 and 1950, and a second place finisher this year, had dropped their opener Sunday to Crown Cork and Seal, 3-7.

The Stars last to fired up Mohawks A. C., Sunday 1.8, but played like a different squad against the seasoned Builders. The youthful Stars looked like a team that may produce other surprises in the Bureau of Recreation's double elimination tourney progresses.

Face Trotters

The Stars will face the Cherry Hill Trotters, who got their first win last Sunday also against the Mohawks, in the 11 a.m. game at Easterwood Park this Sunday. The loser of this contest will be automatically eliminated from the tournament.

The winner will meet the loser of the Crown Cork and Seal-Mohawks A.C. game on Tuesday, August 14th. The Trotters, unseen in two years in the Independent Club League, hope to get rolling this Sunday.

Crown Cork and Seal and the Mohawks A.C., pre-tournament favorites, were in top form last week and will probably give the fans an unusual excitement when they meet at 1 p.m. Sunday on the Easterwood diamond. Crown has beaten the Mohawks three times this season in Easterwood twi-light league action which includes a no hit shut out by Lawrence Ellis.

Crown's decision to pick up Big Sid Long, fire-baller of the Crisco Tigers for the State action paid dividends Sunday when Sid came through against Building Trade School and won 7-2.

Juniors Make Ready

Junior softbiers approached their city championships beginning Wednesday, August 15 with three of four league titles already decided.

George McClain's Blue jays won the South Baltimore Junior League Championship with a record of eight wins and one loss. In the Cherry Hill Junior League Roland Dursey's Golden Hawks are champions with a record of seven victories and two defeats.

The Wizard A. C. under Herman Gray Jr. son of the popular umpire, has just about clinched the second round after winning the first and are unbeaten in seven games. The Easterwood Junior League awaits the results of a play-off game between Eugene Diggs' Jr. Red Dogs A.C. and Linwood Stevens' Dodgers A.C. to settle a first round tie.

Dodgers Win

The Dodgers have won the second round. A win Thursday by the Red Dogs will necessitate one game play-off for the league championship at Easterwood next Monday, August 13th.

The juniors will play a double elimination tournament. A team losing two games will be automatically eliminated. Managers will draw for their opening day opponents at the Bureau of Recreation on Monday, August 13th.

The State Champions award donated by the Opca Cola Bottlers is now on display at Penn Post Pharmacy, 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue.

Eagles Tackle P.O. in Playoff

Final Clash Set at 3:30 Sunday

The Westside Eagles and Post Office meet Sunday in a 3:30 p.m. game at Druid Hill Park to decide the Bureau of Recreation's City unlimited baseball championship playoffs.

A win for Dutch Boone's Eagles will give them their first city championship since 1941. A victory for Jim Williams's unpredictable Post Office will throw the play-offs in a three-way tie between the Eagles, the Post Office and Richard Doswell's Dolphin A. C. In this event a two-game play-off will be necessary.

Last Sunday, defending titlist Eastside A. A., forfeited to the Dolphins, thus keeping alive the Dolphin hopes of overtaking the Eagles. The winner of the city championship will journey to Washington, D. C., to meet the District champion in the Intercity Championship playoff game.

Royals Triumph

The bustling Westside Royals, under Morris Street and Bob Summers, won their second game in the Special Consolation tournament, beating Cobra A. C., 9-7, thereby advancing to the finals in the winners' bracket along with Willie Holland's Arundels. Maryland Technical Institute was automatically eliminated from the double elimination tournament when they lost to Barber Institute Sunday for forfeit.

The Arundels meet the Westside Royals in a 1 p.m., game on Druid Hill diamond No. 2 Sunday. At the same time Barber Institute will play Cobra A. C. on diamond No. 1 at 3:30 p.m. The winner of the Barber Institute-Cobra A. C. game will play the loser of the Westside Royals-Arundels game on diamond No. 1. Two teams will be eliminated as a result of Sunday's slate.

Johnny Tanner's Rockets won the Monumental Club Junior League and city junior baseball championships last week as a result of forfeit wins from the Red Sox and Northwestern Police, Boys Club. This was the first season for Junior franchise baseball in this city.

Louis, Bivins Training for Baltimore Fight

Ex-Champ, Ohioan Clash at Stadium

Monumental Fans Await Wednesday Night Brawl

Joe Louis and Jimmy Bivins have both arrived on the local scene for their 10-round Variety Club heavyweight battle on August 15, at the Baltimore Stadium.

That steps up the interest in the biggest heavyweight clash Baltimore has yet had, and promoter Benny Trotta of the Squares A.C., looks for a corresponding rush for tickets.

Bivins, who has been a heavyweight top-notcher for a decade without ever getting a shot at the Brown Bomber, arrived in Baltimore Monday. Already near peak condition, the Cleveland boxer went immediately to work in a Baltimore Street gym to prepare for the scrap.

Bomber Arrives

Jimmy beat Louis to town by a day. Joe checked in Tuesday, stayed only long enough for a few hellos and reappeared to training headquarters which had been set up for him at Carr's Beach, near Annapolis. The Bomber also showed up in top physical shape. He merely has to resume previous conditioning which saw him shape up so well while beating Cesar Brion at San Francisco last Wednesday.

Both battlers are working with rugged sparmates who will have places on the supporting cards at the Stadium. Bivins is boxing daily with Harry Wills of South Bend, Ind., and Jesse Manigault, rough slugger who is Baltimore's best young heavy prospect of the moment.

Louis's chief sparring partner is Odell Riley, a seasoned Chicago smacksmith. Both Wills and Riley have been main event battlers in Baltimore rings.

No Radio or TV

Trotta has announced that the Louis-Bivins fracas, a benefit show from which the Variety Club will realize 10 percent of the proceeds for its Police Boys' Club program, will be neither broadcasted nor televised.

Louis, rated by many experts as the greatest champion the heavy division ever had, is to the ring what Babe Ruth was to baseball—or rather a combination of Ruth and Ty Cobb, slugger and indomitable master.

The ring records are loaded with Louis. The Brown Bomber held the title longer than any man ever held a fistic crown — 11 years, 8 months.

Top Money - Earner

Joe defended his title 25 times before retiring in 1949 as undefeated champion. No other heavyweight ever came close to that number.

With all that activity, of course, Louis has drawn more money through countless box offices than any other fighter ever did. He participated in three million dollar gates.

He defended the title against every big man the world over who could be scraped up into some semblance of a challenger. Every contender but one, that is. The lone exception was Jimmy Bivins, always a top-rated scrapper who somehow never got a chance at the Bomber. Their Baltimore clash at long last is now rectifying that oversight.

He's Loser Both Ways

Chuck Hunter was twice the loser in his middleweight bout at Boston Monday night. After being knocked out by Rocky Graziano in the second round, he was deprived of his purse by ring officials who said they were not satisfied Hunter had done his best. The boxer applies an ice-pack, trying to clear up his head and his mind.

Boo Brown to Succeed Pinky Clark at Morgan

Appointment of Alvin (Boo) Brown as assistant football coach at Morgan State College was announced Friday by Edward P. Hurt, head coach of the Bears.

Brown, a basketball star and a center on Morgan's championship football teams from 1941 to 1944, succeeds Daniel (Pinky) Clark who is on leave for graduate study at New York University.

A native of Petersburg, Virginia, Brown, who is now teaching summer school at Tillotson College, Austin, Texas, is due to report the last week in August. He is a member of Omega Psi Phi fraternity.

After graduation from Morgan, Brown returned to serve as assistant coach and physical education teacher for the 1945-46 term. He subsequently received his M.A. in physical education from Columbia University.

Was Cage Star

Brown served as assistant coach and physical education teacher at Winston-Salem (N.C.) Teachers College for three years and last year held a similar post at Arkansas State College.

He was forward on the Morgan basketball team of 1944-45 which was undefeated in conference play. The other forward on that team was Cal Irvin, brother of Monte Irvin, New York Giants baseball star.

Center on that team was Leroy Ford, who later starred in football at the University of Michigan. Guards were Dickey Burke and Tippy Day.

Tan Golfers Flop In Tam Tourney

CHICAGO (ANP) — Ofttimes golfers over the weekend failed in goldtdom's biggest money tournament, the Tam O'Shanter.

Only three men and one woman qualified for the various events, and only the woman finished.

Ann Gregory of Gary, Ind. was the only colored woman to qualify. As an amateur, she finished eighth, and among all women finished 24th with a score 20 in 72 holes.

The men who qualified were Charles Sifford, winner of the Southern Open Year ago; Windy City club, and Bill Spiller, Los Angeles.

Tilghman Cops Monumental Golf

At Tilghman and Marguerite Brown, two of the city's top links veterans, copped the men's and women's titles in the annual Monumental Golf Association club tournament last weekend.

Tilghman scored a hard-fought victory over Sam Tillie, perhaps the club's most improved golfer, to annex the championship at Carroll Park Sunday afternoon. The winners score was 2 and 1.

The victor thus succeeded William (Little Willie) Adams, who garnered the title in the 1950 play.

In second division competition, J. Flowers scored an impressive 3 and 2 win over William Johnson, ending the match on the 16th green.

Mrs. Murphy Second

Mrs. Brown, several times women's champion, repeated this year by outlasting Marie Murphy, 2 and 1. Mrs. Murphy was fresh from play in the Toledo Open championships, at Toledo, Ohio, last week. In that tourney, she was the recipient of a trophy as first flight champion in the women's division.

On Sunday, 35 members of the local club will journey to Philadelphia for team play against the Fairview Club at Cobbs Creek course.

N.W. Stars Off to Fast Start in P.S. 122 Play

The N. W. Stars defeated the Royal Dukes, 13 to 5, and Dewdowned Moulton's All-Stars 5 to 2, to remain undefeated in the second half of P. S. No. 122 Unlimited League.

In the first game, it was the all-round teamwork of the Stars that enabled them to pull the slugfest out of the fire.

In the second game, E. Thomas, the N. W. Stars stellar pitcher, allowed Moke's All-Stars five hits to win with ease.

Theodore Jackson who got 2 for 3, and Howard Williams with 2 for 3 were the only members of Mokes' Stars to get to Thomas with any consistency.

Moke's Stars Cop 1st Half Crown

Hopping on Scott for 19 hits, Moulton's All-Stars scored an easy, 11-6 victory over Ritz A. C., to clinch the first-half title in the unlimited division of P. S. 122's diamond league activity.

While his teammates were banging away at the Ritz slabman, Howard Williams was doing a masterful job on the mound for the Stars. He spread the rival team's 11 safeties over the route and always had something in reserve when he found himself in a jam and needed to bear down.

"Don't bother Grandma today!"
Nobody could come in the kitchen when Granny was making up a batch of her own special-make blackberry wine! No, sir! She didn't want anybody taking her mind off that precious recipe of hers. It called for so many berries. It called for so much sugar. It called for being laid away for so long. And, oh, what wonderful wine that was! Rich and sweet and full of that real blackberry flavor.
Folks just don't go to the trouble of making wine at home like that any more. Why should they? Madera's Blackberry Wine is made exactly the way Grandma said to make it. When you open your bottle and sip that wine, it brings back memories . . . golden memories of the wine Grandma made.
Get yourself a bottle . . . just for old time's sake!
