

M^r. President,

The great events on which my resignation depended having at length taken place, I ~~offer~~ ^{of offering my sincere congratulations to Congress} have now the honor of presenting myself before ~~them~~ ^{them} to surrender into their hands the trust committed to me, and to ~~request~~ ^{claim the indulgence of} ~~request~~ ^{request} ~~to retire~~ from the Service of my Country. —

Happy in the confirmation of our Independence and Sovereignty, and ~~pleas'd with the opportunity offered the United States of becoming a respectable Nation~~ ^{and pleas'd with the opportunity offered the United States of becoming a respectable Nation} ~~and happy in the prospect of National Happiness~~, I resign with satisfaction the Appointment I accepted with diffidence — A diffidence in my abilities to accomplish so arduous a task, which however was superseded by a confidence in the rectitude of our Cause, the support of the supreme Power of the Union, and the patronage of Heaven.

The successful termination of the War has verified the most sanguine expectations, and my gratitude for the interposition of Providence, and the assistance I have received from my Countrymen, increases with every review of the momentous Contest. —

While

While I repeat my obligations to the Army in general, I should do injustice to my own feelings not to acknowledge ^{in this place} the peculiar services and distinguished merits of the Gentlemen who have been attached to my person during the war. — It was impossible the choice of confidential officers to compose my family should have been more fortunate. — Permit me Sir, to recommend in particular those who have continued in service to the present moment, as worthy of the favorable notice of Congress. —

I consider it an indispensable duty ~~to~~ to close this last solemn act of my official life, by commending the Interests of our dearest Country to the protection of Almighty God, and those who have the ^{superintending} direction of them, to his holy keeping. —

Having now finished the work assigned me, I retire from the great Theatre of action — and bidding an affectionate ~~farewell~~ farewell to this august body under whose orders I have so long acted, I here ~~offer~~ ^{offer} my Commission, and take my ~~leave~~ leave of all the employments of public life. —
