May Term 1908.

The Members of the Bar met today for the purpose of holding Memorial Services in honor of the Hon R. H. Alvey, Chief Judge, and Hon Louis E. McComas, and Geo H. Smith Esq. members of the Bar, and Geo B. Oswald Esq. Clerk of the Circuit Court.

Hon A Hunter Boyd, Chief Judge, and Hon M L Keedy, associate Judge, was called to the Chair, and Harry E Baker, Clerk, acted as Secretary.

The following Resolutions was adopted and ordered to be recorded in the Minutes and Proceedings of the Circuit Court for Washington County.

Resolutions filed.

See Minutes page 27, August Term 1906, for Resolutions on the death of R H. Alvey Chief Judge.

Hon Louis Emory McComas.

Whereas, in the providence of God, our friend and brother, Hon Louis Emory McComas, late a Justice of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, and an able, honored and eminent Member of this Bar has been called to the life beyond, Therefore, Be it Resolved that in the death of Judge Louis E. McComas, the Bar of Washington County, and the State of Maryland has lost one of its most eminent and honored Members, and the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, an able, painstaking and Conscientious Jurist.

That in every relation of life, public and private, at the Bar, in the halls of legislation, on the Bench, our departed brother was at all times actuated by those loftier sentiments that dignify and adorn human life, and make men valued as citizens, and was esteemed by all men who love virtue and are upright and generous in thought and deed. That in his death the State and Nation has lost an eminent and distinguished Statesman,

That Washington County, the place of his nativity and the scene of his early triumphs in life and at the Bar, to whose people he was ever grateful, and whom it was his constant ambition and delight to serve, and whom he was constantly serving with great and Material benefit throughout his life, Mourns his loss with a sincere grief, and here his Memory will be sacredly Cherished, his life's work adequately appreciated and his sterling Character and remarkable Career embalmed as long as the noble traits and ambitions of men prevail,

Be it further Resolved that, as a tribute of respect to our departed brother, these resolutions be entered upon the Minutes of this Court, that a Copy thereof be published and that an engrossed Copy be presented to the family of the our deceased brother,

Minutes and Proceedings

Hon George W. Smith, Jr.

To, The Honorable,
The Judges of the Circuit Court for Washington County,
The Members of the Bar of this County pray your Honors to accept the following memorial upon the death of their late Brother, George W. Smith Jr, and to order the same to be spread upon the minutes of the Court that it may perpetuate their appreciation of his professional career and remain as a record of their Sorrow over his death,

Mr. Smith was the Senior member of this Bar, He was admitted to practice in August 1856, His Strength and force of Character and his Studious habits attracted the attention and regard of the older members of the Bar, and Shortly after his admission he became a member of the firm of Wason, Freaner, and Smith, He contributed to this firm the labors of his early professional life and rapidly developed in the estimation of his associates, and the Community, into a trusted Counsellor and a learned lawyer,

His association with Messrs Wason and Freaner was broken up by the Civil War, and he continued in practice alone until the year 1867, when he formed a Copartnership with the late Governor William T. Hamilton which lasted until Governor Hamiltons death in 1888, and Since then Mr. Smith, as the Survivor of the firm of Hamilton and Smith remained in active practice until Shortly before his death, which terminated a Career of fifty years as a member of this Bar, Mr Smiths rank in the Bar was not only first as its oldest member, None Stood higher in the Confidence and esteem of his fellow-members and of the Community, He was Conscientious, painstaking, faithful and judicious Counseller, and enjoyed and deserved the highest respect and esteem of the Community and his clients whom he so faithfully Served,

In addition to these qualifications of a Successful Attorney at law, Mr. Smith possessed a most amiable disposition, He was always Courteous and most Considerate of the feelings of his Associates,

Both as a lawyer and Man he has left upon us who Survive him pleasant Memories, and we now pray the Court to order this Memorial of our deceased brother to be entered upon its minutes,

May Term 1908.

Mr. George B. Oswald.

Col Buchanan Schley read the Resolutions on the death of Mr Oswald as follows, prepared by the Committee, Buchanan Schley, Norman B. Scott Jr. W. J. Witzenbacher J. Clarence Lane, Col Charles A. Little,

To the Honorable,
The Judges of the Circuit Court for Washington County,

The Committe appointed at the Bar Meeting held Monday April 27th 1908, to prepare and report suitable resolutions on the death of George B. Oswald late Clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington County Maryland, beg leave to submit the following, and ask that they be spread on the minutes of the Court,

Resolved, That in the death of George B. Oswald, Clerk of this Court, from November 22nd 1873 to the day of his death, April 26th A.D. 1908, the Bar of Washington County has suffered an irreparable loss in being deprived of his able and efficient aid in the performance of the varied and responsible duties he was called on to discharge. With unexampled fidelity and versatility, he was apt and proficient in the details of every phase of legal proceedings, and the Bench and Bar leaned with simple faith upon the vast stores of knowledge garnered by him in the domain of legal practice, His sincerity and honesty in the discharge of his duties commanded the respect, confidence and admiration of every member of the Bar and of all the people whose business brought them in touch with the Clerk's office, The accuracy and precision of his language the correctness of the facts in his entries, the openness and frankness of his dealings, engendered in all, the unshaken assurance that in every case the truth was maintained, and the just rights of all parties preserved,

His unvarying courtesy made the transaction of affairs with him a positive pleasure; and no one of us ever left his presence save with the feeling that we were parting not only from a wise Counsellor, but also from a friend, The people who showed their respect, confidence and love for him by electing him six times to the high office he so ably filled to the last, have lost not only a faithful public servant but a man without reproach, able and unassuming, conscientious in the discharge of all his duties, winning golden opinions" from all who came in contact with him and felt the influences for good of such an exalted character as his

We the Members of the Bar revere his memory, as that of a highly intelligent, useful, and accomplished official, and mourn the loss of an honest, conscientious, strong man and loyal friend, of whom we were proud and whom we loved,
