Saturday, June 20, 1914, Court met, present on the Bench Hon. M. L. Keedy, Associate Judge.

Resolutions on the death of J. Clarence Lane were passed by the members of the Washington County Bar as follows:

Whereas, the members of the Bar of Washington County have learned with deep regret of the death of one of their fellow members, J. Clarence Lane, and
Whereas, they desire to express in some formal way their sorrow for his death and to honor his memory,
Be It Resolved by the members of the Bar of Washington County, in the State of Maryland, that in the death of J. Clarence Lane, the Bar of Washington County and the State of Maryland has lost one of its most esteemed and useful members, and the County and State one of its most respected and honored citizens.
J. Clarence Lane was one of the most earnest, painstaking and careful members of the Bar, and always a safe and sound adviser. He was blessed with a systematic and methodical mind, and this, coupled with his love for his profession, and the enthusiasm with which he always entered into his work as a lawyer, set him apart as one of the leaders in his profession, and an ornament to the Bar of his County and State.
His large clientage and the many important cases with which he was connected as attorney, bear testimony to his standing as an attorney, as well as to the high opinion entertained of him by the people of his County and State. He was broad-minded and liberal, always courteous and affable to his fellow members of the Bar, and whether associated with him in the trial of cases, or in opposition to him, his fellow members of the Bar always found it a pleasure to take part in the trial of cases in which he was interested. He was a great student of the law, and always gave one the impression that he engaged in the trial of his cases more for the love of the work, and the pleasure he took in the practice of his profession, than for any remuneration that might follow as the result of his efforts. His cases were always carefully prepared, thoroughly diagnosed and analyzed before he entered the Court House for the trial of the same, and much of his success before the Court and the jury was due to his thorough knowledge of the facts involved in his cases, and to the thorough research of the law applicable thereto, and in this respect he can always be held up as a shining example to those of his fellow members of the Bar who have survived him.

He was not only a leader in his profession, but he was also a man of exemplary character, and always manifested an active interest in everything calculated to improve and benefit his Town and County and State, and although his profession as a lawyer always stood first, yet he found time to take an interest in many of the industrial enterprises of the Community, and his advice and counsel was always in demand in matters of this character.

As a citizen, he was held in high esteem by all who knew him. As a member of the State Senate some years ago, he took a high rank among the Legislators of the State, and was recognized as one peculiarly fitted for public life, and although he never aspired to become an active politician, he always stood for what was highest and best in the political world.

Be It Further Resolved, That the members of the Bar attend his funeral in a body; that a copy of these resolutions be published in the newspapers of the town; that a copy of the same be sent to his family, and that a copy of the same be spread upon the minutes of the Circuit Court for Washington County, in the State of Maryland.

Monday, June 22nd, 1914. Court met, present on the Bench Hon. M. L. Keedy, Associate Judge.
