MOTION FOR ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Comes now the Plaintiff, Carolyn R. Burdette, by her attorney, Paul B. Handy, and moves that this Honorable Court pass its second Order of Publication in this action, and for reasons states as follows:

1. Plaintiff has filed her Motion for Service by Publication, requesting that service on the Defendant, Edward J. McCarthy, Jr., and on the Estate of Edward J. McCarthy, Jr., be deemed effective by publication.

2. On or about March 15, 1987, counsel for the Plaintiff received a telephone call from Mrs. Tritapoe of the Clerk's Office, Circuit Court for Frederick County, Maryland. Mrs. Tritapoe informed counsel that this Honorable Court (G. Edward Dwyer, Jr., J.) denied the Motion for Service by Publication, but indicated, that a separate publication would be required in order to give notice to the Estate of Edward J. McCarthy, Jr., for purposes of foreclosing rights of redemption to the subject property.
