Apollo's Fount.

EXTRACT FROM THE METEORS,
AN ORIGINAL WORK.

ALTHOUGH they write of ardent sighs
The wanton look, the coy surprise,
All envious poets have confest,
My love of rival far the best.

Around her form so neat, so gay,
Ten thousand rosy Cupid's play,
Behold her undulating hair,
Ten thousand flowing charms are there.

How oft her speaking eyes impart
Ten thousand wishes to my heart,
Ten thousand times I long'd to sip
The nectar of her coral lip.

There are, although to those I yield,
Ten thousand other charms conceal'd;
Extatic charms! By love's decree
Destin'd, exclusively, for me.

A wag, attentive to my lays,
Thus resolv'd her boasted praise;
"Friend Tom, my learned head expounds,
Thy Sylvia has TEN THOUSAND POUNDS."

On some Young Ladies expressing a surprise what pleasure there could be in KISSES.

"KISSES, the subject of debate,
"What extacy they may create,"
As the language of the heart,
Lips contribute to impart,
Men may gain the fair's affection,
While with them they have connection;
Lips rever'd by gentle touch,
May'nt avail the passions much;
But, with mutual ardor press'd,
Kind affections are confess'd.
Eyes proclaim the heart's compliance,
Lips confirm a sure reliance;—
Thus together, lips and eyes,
Yield the man the happy prize.
Ladies, disprove me if you can—
Proclaim the battle, I'm your man.

FROM THE GREEK.

Why, foolish painter, give those wings to Love?
Love is not light, as my sad heart can prove;
Love hath no wings, or none that I can see,
If he can fly—oh! bid him fly from me.

Notice to Creditors.

Notice.

WHEREAS it has been reported by Mr. James Stafford and Mr. William Billings, that my horse Inspector has been found very unsuccessful in the production of foals. I am under the necessity of publishing the following certificates that the public may judge with what justice the report has been made.

SILAS FLEMING.

Caroline County, April 19th, 1803. 3

To all whom it may concern. I do hereby certify, that I am well acquainted with the bay horse called Inspector, formerly the property of Mr. Vincent Moore, but now the property of Mr. Silas Fleming, and that I put a mare to him last season, and she proved with foal from the first leap, and has brought a good colt:—also several of my neighbors put to the said horse, and their mares proved with foal by him, and I believe him to be a good foal getter, and as sure a horse as any on the Eastern Shore. SAMUEL HARINGTON.

Caroline County, April 19th, 1803.

To all whom it doth or may concern. We the subscribers, do hereby certify, that we are well acquainted with the horse called Inspector, formerly the property of Mr. Vincent Moore, but now the property of Mr. Silas Fleming, that to our knowledge he covered as many mares in this neighborhood as any horse that ever stood therein, and from the best information that we have had, there is but one mare that did not prove with foal, and we believe him to be a good foal getter, and as sure a horse as any on the Eastern Shore. Witness our hands,

Vincent Moore,
Joshua Minner,
Ruben Warren,
John Gregg,
Matthias Clifton.

To the public.

THE PROPRIETOR OF THE RED SULPHUR SPRINGS

INFORMS the citizens of America, that his springs are now adapted to the accommodation of visitors; being provided with a good stone bath-house and houses of lodging—He tenders to the public the services of his best endeavors to render satisfaction to all that may visit those waters. The efficacy of those waters are only to be recommended by those who have experienced their effects; but as all may not have the chance to see any of those who have received benefit, he conceives it his duty to state, that those springs have been discovered about five years ago; since which time they have effected cures of long standing dropsies, rheumatisms and consumptions—It soon cures persons who have lingered with any kind of fevers. Those springs are about thirty-eight miles west of the sweet springs. NICHOLAS HARVEY.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber on the Easter holydays last, a young negro man named HARRY, about twenty-one years of age, supposed to be five feet ten inches high, black, stout made, and stands a little bow-legged, has generally a smile on his countenance when spoken to, if in good humor; he has no visible scars. He took with him a kersey jacket and trousers, black and white; a nankeen jacket and trousers, and a yellow casimere waistcoat; but often changes his clothes, as he is fond of trafficking; he has an uncle living at Wye, it is probable, he may be lurking thereabouts. Whoever takes up said negro and secures him so that the subscriber may get him, shall receive the above reward, if taken out of the county; if in it, ten dollars.

And all other kinds of spirit varnish.
Best copal varnish, do. Japan do. } for Chair makers.

Japan for tinmen, with directions how to use it, equal to any that ever was made.

All kinds of cordials and best bitters, wholesale and retail, with sundry articles in the Chymical line.

Orders from the country and elsewhere, attended to with punctuality, by he public's humble servants,

STEPHEN VICKERY & Co.

Baltimore, March 22, 1803. 7

N. B. All kinds of colours mixed for paper hanging manufactories on the shortest notice S. V. & Co.

The subscriber, intending to leave the Eastern Shore of Maryland, offers at private sale, the following

VALUABLE PROPERTY, viz.

THE Farm, formerly the residence of the late Dr. Maynadier, within five miles of Easton, containing two hundred and eighty-two acres, on which is a large and convenient dwelling house with almost every necessary out-house; also the stock on the said place, consisting of horses, horned cattle, sheep and hogs, with the farming utensils;

A water lot in the town of St Michaels, 60 feet front and 140 feet deep, on which is a good dwelling house, kitchen and smoak house, also, convenient to the said lot, twelve acres of highly manured ground under a post and rail fence on which are a dwelling house, carriage house and stable, with a well paled garden.

Any person disposed to purchase the above named property, or any part thereof, will, on application to the subscriber, find accommodating terms.

THOS. L. HADDAWAY.

Talbot County, Md. Jan. 11, 1803.

ANY person having timber to fall this spring, and no convenience of securing the bark, the subscriber will undertake to save it and give them a reasonable compensation for the same. A generous price will also be given for well cured tan bark.

WM. ATKINSON.

For Sale,
A TRACT OF LAND,

SITUATED on Elk river, about two miles below French-town, containing 300 acres, about sixty of which only are cleared, and the remainder is heavily timbered. There is on this farm a good dwelling house, with two rooms on the first, and three on the second floor; a kitchen, barn with stables, and a corn house. The convenience which navigable water affords for transporting timber to Baltimore market, which might be prepared here for ship-building, renders this property a valuable one, to any person who is engaged in this kind of business. A family may at all seasons be supplied with as many fish as they can make use of, from a ware, within one hundred yards of the dwelling. Wild fowl are found here in great numbers.

I will also sell

Another Tract of Land,

Situated in Kent county, on Chester river, containing between 5 and 600 acres, about 400 of which are arable; 40 of this might be with little expense, converted into excellent meadow, and the remainder is well timbered. On this farm, there is a good dwelling house, barn, granary, stables and carriage house. The whole of those houses have been lately thoroughly repaired. Through the middle of this farm, runs a stream of water, upon which a mill formerly stood; the dam might be again put up with a small expense, and the situation is a good one for country business.

Any person inclining to purchase, will either personally, or by letter, apply to me at George Town Cross Roads, Kent county, Maryland—The terms will be made accommodating as to time of payment, and an indisputable title given by

GIDEON PEARCE.

April 12, 1803. 2m

For Sale or Rent,

A VALUABLE and well improved Farm, containing about 450 acres of land, of which 300 are cleared, under good fencing, and is at present in a high state of cultivation. This Farm is situated on the Main Ditch of the Long Marsh in Caroline county, and adjoining an estate of Mr. William Hemsley—distant from Duck Creek about 20 miles, and from Centreville 15. Upon it are, a dwelling house, negro quarters, stable, meat house, and other necessary buildings for a farm, also two houses for the curing of tobacco—to the growth of which the soil is well adapted. There is likewise a flourishing orchard of upwards of 300 apple trees.

To a person who would pay down one third of the purchase money, a liberal credit would be given for the balance. If a sale should not be made before the 1st day of September next, then the farm will be to rent. Persons who would wish to view the above mentioned property, are requested to call on the Rev. Samuel Keene, Jun. or Mr. Woolman Warner, residing on the March, who will shew the property, and are authorized to contract for the same, or if convenient, application may be made to the subscriber in the city of Baltimore.

JAMES CHESTON.

March 22, 1803.

Samuel Elbert,

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his friends and former customers, that he has resumed the Carriage Making Business, at the head of Washington Street, Easton, in a large and commodious Shop, built for the purpose; and that he intends carrying on the above business in its various branches, extensively; and solicits the patronage of his friends, with a share of public favors—as he is determined to execute such as may be intrusted to him in the best manner, on reasonable terms. He flatters himself in being able to give general satitfaction.

Easton, March 22, 1803. 6

Notice.

THE Subscribers having become proprietors of the Herring Fishery lately carried on by Mr. Thomas Freeman, on Tuckahoe Creek, near Lewistown, they hereby notify the public, that it will be attended to with strict attention, being determined to supply any person with herring at the moderate price of three dollars per thousand, for cash or country produce.

ROBERT FRANCIS, & Co.

March 1, 1803.

N. B. A constant supply of Salt and other Wet Goods will be kept at the landing. R. F. & Co

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RUN away from the subscriber in May last, a negro woman by name CATE; took her male child, then about twelve months old, with her; she is black, about nineteen years of age, and has three nipples on each breast; was purchased of Mr. Matthias Bordley, on Wye Island. It is probable she is on or near said Island, as her mother lives there; her father lives near Church Hill, perhaps she may be about said place. Any person delivering said negro woman and child to Mr. John Cain, in Centreville, shall receive the above reward.

Easton, April 5, 1803.

James Berry,
Gold & Silversmith, EASTON.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has commenced business in the house lately occupied by Mr. Ludwick Wainer, Washington street, and solicits the patronage of a generous public, with assurances on his part of the strictest attention and assiduity to their commands.

Easton, January 4, 1803.

N. B. The highest price given for old Gold and Silver.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber on Monday 21st instant, a negro man named GOVET, twenty-two years of age, about five feet and an half high, well set, with square shoulders, large round face, and flat nose; he is an intelligent sensible fellow, and when sharply spoken to, puts on the appearance of sullenness and moroseness, with an insolent but downward look; had on when he went away, a linsey-woolsey over jacket, a pretty good wool hat, old grey cloth trousers, and white yarn stockings; however, he may have changed his dress, as he took with him a pair of new grey cloth trousers, a white shirt, and nankeen over jacket, with other clothes unknown: he has a small notch cut in one of his ears, but without minute examination will not be discovered, as it is almost grown out. Whoever takes up said servant and secures him so that the subscriber may get him, shall receive the above reward, if taken out of the county, if in it, ten dollars.

JOHN MAGUIRE.

Dorchester County, Maryland, March 29, 1803. 6q

Two hundred dollars reward.

RAN away from the subscriber some time in March last, a negro girl by the name of MILL, who did belong to the late John Barrow, deceased; about seventeen years of age, lively, and of a delicate make: Also, went off about the first of June last, a negro man named BILL, formerly the property of Henrietta Bewley, about twenty-five or twenty-six years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, well made, of an orderly and submissive deportment. It is presumed that the clothing which the above negroes had on, when they absconded, is needless to be described from the great length of time that has since elapsed.—The above reward or in proportion for either of them, will be given to any person securing the said runaways so that the subscriber may get them again, and reasonable expenses paid if brought home.

WILLIAM CRONEY.
