BA- 387 BLENHEIM (MERCY VILLA SITE) - 6806 Bellona Avenue. Large, late Victorian house, originally called Blenheim, the home of distiller William Lanahan; sold in 1920 to Sisters of Mercy who conducted a convalescent home called Mercy Villa. House demolished along with gazebo in 1976. Retirement home for sisters continues in new structure.