NOTICE.

THE Publisher of the BALTIMORE DIRECTOR, in presenting this his eleventh edition, deems a recapitulation of the difficulties of getting up the work unnecessary on the present occasion. They are obvious to every reflecting and candid mind, and have been sufficiently explained in former editions. But it is impossible to escape the censures of the thoughtless, the prejudiced, and the interested. Allowance, however, should be made for the observations of those having no experience in the difficulties of the work, who do not consider that there is no work, from its very nature, more liable to imperfection.

The subscriber will venture to say that he has had experience sufficient to enable him to get up the work as correctly as is practicable; and in the present compilation he has used the means within his reach to effect that object.

In the following pages it will in many instances be found that names admitting of different orthography have been repeated, which should not be deemed error. Names of members of firms, taken at their residence, will probably appear without being designated as of such firms, that not having been mentioned by those who gave the information.

It will be recollected that this work was not commenced by the subscriber; more than half the citizens' addresses having been taken by others, who then, for reasons not necessary to mention here, transferred the work to him. However efficient their theoretical knowledge may have been, their inexperience required that a careful revision of their labor should have been made; which revision, in transcribing their work alphabetically for the press, has consumed quite as much time as was requisite at first for taking the addresses. It is confidently believed that the work will be found as full and as correct as it is practicable, under the circumstances, to make it; and it is hoped that the intense labor and anxiety bestowed on it will insure the approbation and patronage of a generous public.

The price of the book is $1.25; with a Map, on which the twenty wards of the city are designated, $1.50.

RICHARD J. MATCHETT, Publisher.

CITY OF BALTIMORE.

WE have in several preceding editions of the Director, given sketches of the city and its history, we will now give a view of the early history, and of the late, as far as is expedient, premising that the city of Baltimore is situated on an arm of the Patapsco river, 39° 20' north latitude, about two hundred miles from the mouth of the Chesapeake bay, a bay unrivalled the world over for its various products and superior harbors. Few cities present so central a position. It is found, on comparing distances, that Baltimore is 14 miles nearer Columbia, Pa., than Philadelphia, and 58 miles nearer Buffalo, N. York, than the city of New York itself, while its proximity to the south and southwestern states, is daily adding to its trade and commerce.

Through the politeness of the present worthy city Register, Doctor J. J. Graves, we have been permitted to examine the first record book of the city; it is a plain manuscript book, containing about two quires of foolscap paper, bound in parchment; in it are the entries for both Baltimore and Jones's Town, for several years; the records of the first we had purposed giving entire, but want of room would not allow; the extracts we have made we think will be acceptable to many of our patrons. We retain the spelling, &c.

The Act of the Legislature of 1729 appointed Commissioners to buy the land and lay out a town. We apprehend that if the same thing were to be done now, there would be more hurry to get the sixty lots than there appeared, even up to 1747, only 29 years prior to the revolution.

THE ENTRIES OF BALTEMORE TOWN.

BEGUN BY

GEORGE WALKER,

December 1st, 1729.

On Munday the first day of Decr. 1729, the following Commissioners, viz. Messrs. Richard Gist, William Hamilton, George Buchanan, George Walker,

Being four of the seven Commissioners appointed by Act of Assembly for agreeing with Chas. Carroll and Danl. Carroll, esqrs. about the price and purchase of sixty acres of land, to be erected into a town called Baltemore Town, and the said four Commissioners agreed with the said Charles Carroll esqr. on his own behalf and on behalf of his brother Daniel, then absent, to pay them the said Charles and Daniel or their order, the sume of forty shillings, currant money of Maryland, or else tobacco, to be paid in the hands of the Sherrif of Baltemore County at one penny per lb. until it amounts to forty shillings value per acre to be paid by each Purchaser of a Lott in the sd town, to the said Charles and Daniel or their heirs and assignes.

The same day the said Commissioners appointed the second Munday of January, being the 12th day of January next, to meet the Surveyor of Baltemore County on the tract of land called Cole's Harbour; which is the land pitched upon by the Assembly for the erection of Baltemore Town aforesaid on, and there to give the said Surveyor directions for laying out the said Town.

On Monday the 12th of January 1729 '30 then the following Commissioners for Baltemore Town mett on the Tract of land called Cole's Harbour, on which the said Town was designed, viz. William Buckner, William Hammond, Richard Gist, Geo. Buchanan, Geo. Walker, and there ordered the Surveyor of Baltemore County to runn out the Town aforesaid, beginning at a locust post to be sett up on a point of the said land, and running from the locust post east $5\frac{1}{2}$ perches, north 21° , east 10 perches, north east 19 perches, north 69° , east 12 perches, north $72^\circ 30'$, east 22 perches, south 55° , east 14 perches, south 75° , east 18 perches, south $53^\circ 30'$, east 6 perches, north 86 perches, west 14 perches, south 6 perches, west 14 perches, south 4 perches, west 18 perches, north 69° , west 22, north 29° , west 26 perches, south 40° , west 46 p. south 50° , west 32 p. south 30° , west 23 p. south $41^\circ, 30'$, east 17 p. then to the beginning, locust post, containing sixty acres of land to be divided into sixty lotts with convenient streets and lanes.

On the same day, said Commissioners appointed George Walker, being one of their number, for their Clerk, who the following day was qualified befor Mr. Richard Gist, by taking ane oath to make true and impartial entries of the proceedings of the Commissioners for Baltemore Town, as also the taking up the lotts thereof.

On Wednesday the 14th day of January 1729 '30, these lotts were taken up as follows by the underwritten gentlemen who secured their titles to the same by beginning and finishing on their respective lotts, houses that covered at least 400 square feet of ground (as was required of the takers up of lotts by Act of Assembly) within less than eighteen months after their taking them up, viz. Charles Carroll esqr. No. 49, Philip Jones, jr. No. 37, George Walker, No. 52, Jas. Jackson, No. 38, Richard Gist, No. 48, William Hammond, No. 45, Mordecai Price, No. 55, Christopher Gist, N. 56.

Memorandum that the above named Mordecai Price conveyed his right and title to the above lott No. 55 to Capt. Robt. Gordon, of Annapolis and his heirs forever, who complied with the requisites mentioned in the Act of Assembly for Baltimore Town, James Jackson also conveyed his right to ye lott No. 38, unto Mr. Samuel Peel and his heirs, who duly complied with sd. requisites.

On Thursday the 15th of January 1729 '30 the three following lotts were taken up by the underwritten gentlemen, but they forfeited their right thereto by not building thereupon as required by Act of Assembly. Thomas Sheredine, No. 44, William Buckner, No. 53, James Powell, No. 26.

On Friday ye 16th January 1729 '30 the two following lotts were taken up by the following gentlemen, viz. Chas. Ridgely, No. 41, Luke Trotten, No 36. Some time afterwards, the said Ridgely conveyed the said lot No. 54 to Mr. John Diggs, who built upon the same as required by Act of Assembly in due time.

The above sd Luke Trotten also conveyed his right to the said lot No. 36 unto Mr. Philip Jones jr. who complied with the requisites of the Act of Assembly.

On Monday 19 January 1729 '30, the two following lotts were taken up by the underwritten gentlemen who forfeited their right thereto by not building thereupon, viz. Capt. Robert North, No. 10, Richard Hewitt, 35.

On Tuesday following being the 20th day of January 1729 '30, Capt. Thomas Sheredine took up the lott No. 14, in the name and for the use of his son Daniel Sheredine, but suffer'd their right thereto to become void for want of building thereon as by Act of Assembly enjoyn'd.

On Wednesday being 21st January 1729 '30, Mr. Lloyd Harris took up the lott No. 56 in the name of John Gorsuch, which Gorsuch afterward conveyed his right thereto unto the said Lloyd Harris, which sd Harris built upon as required by Act of Assembly.

January 23d 1735 '6, Then came Mr. Thomas Woodward in the name and on behalf of Mr. Gideon Donaldson and took up the lott No. 41.

March 4th 1737 '8, Then Mr. Joseph Hall came and ordered the lott No. 14 in Baltemore Town, which was taken up by Captain Thomas Sheredine on 20th January 1729 '30 in the name of his son Daniel, to be entered in his name and for his use forever.

March 4th 1737 '8, Then came Mr. William Rogers and desired the lotts 42, 43 and 44 in Baltemore Town, might

* This appears to be on his own account, ^{dit} not for a Church.

† This appears the first lot for erecting a Church, and the only one before 1747.

be entered in his own name and for own his use through the default of the former uptakers thereof.

May 23d 1740, Then came Mr. Edward Fottrell and represented that he was apprehensive that the lot 11, taken up by Mr. Richd. Lewis became vacant and fell to the use of Baltimore Town notwithstanding the sd Lewis built a house upon the same, which was removed from the sd lott before the doors were put on by Solomon Wooden the builder, and the sd Fottrell desired the sd lott No. 11, may be entered in the register in his own name and for his own use.

July 23d 1740, Then Mr. Wm. Rogers came and represented to me Clk. of Baltimore Town, that he was apprehensive that the lott No. 14, in sd Town formerly taken up by Capt. Thomas Sheredine, falls vacant for the use of the sd town which he the said Rogers desires may be registered in his own name.

May 15th 1741, Then came the Rev. Benedict Bourdillon and desired the two following lotts in Baltimore Town, viz. Nos. 26 and 35, may be entered in his own name, which is now accordingly done.

September 24th 1741, Then came Mr. Edward Fottrell and represented to the Clerk of Baltimore Town, that the lott No. 39, vacant by reason that Thomas Woodward had not built his house on the said lott, but on another adjoining, wherefore the said Fottrell desired that it might be entered in his own name and for his own use, which is now accordingly done.

September 16th 1747, Then came Dr. George Buchanan, Col. William Hammond, Capt. Darby Lux, and William Thomas Harrison, desiring that the lotts in Baltimore Town Nos. 26, 21, 22 and 39, taken up by various persons and being forfeited for not building thereon according to Act of Assembly, desire may be entered in their names each an equal share.

In 1752 there were about twenty-five houses, four only of brick, in 1775 there were 564 houses and about six thousand inhabitants, in 1776 there were but 472 votes taken at an election for delegates to the Convention. In 1790 its population was 13, 503, in 1840, about one hundred and ten thousand, and now we suppose one hundred and twenty five thousand ; about twenty two thousand houses, covering not less than three thousand square acres of ground ; 21 Public School containing 4313 scholars ; with its justly celebrated Monuments and other public and private buildings.

No branch of trade in our city has so rapidly increased as the Tobacco trade, principally from the west by the Ohio and Susquehanna Rail Roads, and Tide Water Canal. A large warehouse was added last year, and now a much larger one is being erected on Charles street, south of Pratt; in the meantime, nearly every warehouse and shed suitable for storing it, has more or less tobacco in it.

Our march is onward, steadily and surely. Who will say what a city ours is destined to be, and where can the next hundred years place our limits?

BERMUDA ARROW ROOT & TOUS LES MOIS.

This Arrow Root is well known to the customers of J. V.D. Stewart, having been imported by him (generally twice a year) for more than five years.—The crop of the manufacturer was previously monopolized for the London market, and is far superior to the mixed lots constantly for sale in our market from various manufacturers in Bermuda.

I prefer to pay 20 per cent. more for this manufacture than I can get the Bermuda Arrow Root for here of the importers, and continue to retail it at the usual price in canisters, sealed.

ALL RIVER WATER RENDERED NEARLY AS PURE AS DISTILLED WATER.

JENNISON'S PATENT, 1845. DIAPHRAGM FILTERS, FOR PURIFYING WATER & OTHER LIQUIDS, WHILE UNDER PRESSURE.

This portable apparatus, not larger than a pint measure, can be readily, and without expense, attached to any hydrant or pipe conveying water, and will yield a steady stream of pure water, equal to one hundred gallons per hour, under the pressure of the Croton, more than enough for the culinary wants of the largest families, even for washing clothes, to which it imparts a pearly whiteness not otherwise obtained. It separates with equal certainty and despatch all the animal, vegetable, and earthy matter found, despite of all possible precautions, in every distributing channel of the Croton, Schuylkill, Mississippi, and other river water. They are also constructed for filtering fluids for manufacturing purposes, and water for steam engines, &c. &c.

The necessity of filtering river water, and the efficiency of the Diaphragm Filter, bear the endorsement of many of the most eminent physicians and chemists of the cities of New York and Philadelphia, and the approbation of the AMERICAN INSTITUTE, by awarding Mr. Jennison a gold medal at the fair of 1845, and a gold medal for improvements, at the recent fair of 1846.

Analysis of the Residuum of Croton Water, by Dr. James R. Chilton.

"The dark green, muddy substance separated from the Croton water by Mr. Jennison's Filter, I find, by analysis, to consist of animal and vegetable matter, with the oxide of iron.

These filters are highly ornamental, and will last for years, and are not liable to get out of repair, nor subject to damage from frost, and will prevent the pipes from bursting. They have the merit of cleansing themselves, and are most admirably designed for filtering all water under any degree of pressure.

Persons desirous of examining the Filter, and understanding the principle of its operation, can call at No. 334 Broadway, New York, 79 Walnut street, corner of Third, Philadelphia, and

No. 3 SOUTH STREET, BALTIMORE,

Where they are for sale and exhibition. From the facilities in their manufacture, and the increasing demand, the proprietor is enabled to afford them at from $3 to $5 each.

DIRECTIONS.—By the simple act of changing the Filter, end for end, and permitting the water to escape for a few seconds, it will be cleansed, which may be required three or four times a week, depending, however, on the quantity of water used, and the sediment contained. This act effectually secures the perfect operation of the instrument. At all times the first water that passes through the Filter should be permitted to escape for a few seconds, and the stream gradually diminished, by turning the faucet, until a steady and uniform flow of water is attained, when it will be found pure and clear as crystal.

ADDRESS

OF THE CARRIER

TO HIS PATRONS.

BALTIMORE PATRIOT.

The good old year just dying
In silence and in gloom,
Long sable plumes are lying
In sadness on its tomb.
Ah! what bright hopes and joys,
And prospects fair,
Which stern old Time destroys,
Lie buried there.
With the ages that are past
Thou hast gone to dwell;
And we bid thee now at last,
Old "Thirty-nine," farewell!

The new-born year is springing
Forth into life and light;
And with it, young hopes bringing,
As fresh, as fair, as bright,
As those that wither'd lie
In the cold grave;
Like them, too soon to die,
With none to save.
But the future we will dim
With no ill-boding tear;
Join the universal hymn,
Hail to the new-born year!

'Twas thus, as your Carrier-boy wander'd along
Through the oft-trodden paths which his duties require,
That he pour'd forth the weight of his spirit in song,
The return of this season must always inspire.
And may he not hope, while your bounty bestows
The gift which is purpos'd his bosom to cheer,
That you'll kindly take up his lay, as it flows,
And blithely join with him to hail the New-Year?
And follow him too, while he takes a survey
Of coming events, and the signs of the times;
And seeks to reveal, midst the future's dim ray,
The shadows of fate, in his perishing rhymes.

How pales the star of Cæsar now!
How fades the pride of former years,
How wither'd, on the victor's brow,
His morning triumph's wreath appears!
He that so safely grasp'd, till late,
The reins of empire in his hand—
Who rul'd the fawning slaves that wait
The issues of his dread command;
Whose nod was fortune, and whose word
Was law unto the slavish herd
That, by a tame subserviency,
For favours won make fit return,
Or such as bend the cringing knee
For those they humbly hope to earn;
Yes he, e'en he, alas! how fate
Sports with the fortunes of the great!
With all the aids of pow'r and place,
Must trick and "jockey for the race!"
Aye! for the race he cannot win,
With all his artifice and skill:
The fox, though robed in lion's skin,
Is but a crafty Roynard still.

But what resources will avail,
When all his arts and intrigues fail?
What solace can the statesman find,
To calm the troubles of a mind
Sustain'd by no approving sense
Of virtue, dignity and truth?
The sly trick, the stale pretence,
The selfish policy of youth,
Matur'd through years of low deceit;
Will these console him in defeat,
And stripp'd of patronage and pow'r?
Those pageant of a fleeting hour,
For which he nearly barter'd all
That good ten prize, of rank and fame,
To find at last deeper fall,
Scath'd lion, and a tarnish'd name!

JANUARY 1, 10.

What noble scheme, what grand design,
What measure for his Country's good,
Will mem'ry bring, in life's decline,
To cheer the gloom of solitude?
Not one—not one! But he will drag
His weary life unto its end,
And chide the hours that seem to lag
On sluggish wings—till he descend
"To the vile dust from which he sprung,
Unwept, unhonour'd und unsung!"

Turn we from him, and gladly turn,
Where purer patriot fires burn.
The soldier, early train'd to wield
The flashing sword of glorious strife,
And win, in honour's hard-fought field,
The laurels of a hero's life;
The statesman, tried, and ever found
Honest, and capable, and sound,
Obedient to his country's laws,
And faithful in her righteous cause;
The patriot, open as the day,
Whom bribes nor threats could e'er seduce
To swerve from virtue's onward way,
Or yield assent to an abuse
In place or pow'r; through whose pure hands,
Sums of bright gold, and treasures vast,
And boundless plains of public lands,
Untouch'd, untasted all, have pass'd,
And left him pennyless and poor;
But richer in the priceless store
Of a great soul devoid of shame—
Stern virtue, and a spotless name!
Such is the man to claim applause,
A champion worthy of our cause.—
"The Cincinnatus of the West,"
With honour's badge upon his breast!
Whose stainless banner, broad and free,
Leads on to glorious victory!

What though our individual voice
Fail'd to command the gen'ral choice?
Our preference we freely waive;
And if, just now, we cannot have
Our Harry's self, (not mine the pun,)
We'll rest content with HARRY-SON!

But he, the tried old patriot, he
The very soul of chivalry,
Open, magnanimous, and great,
The guardian genius of the state;
To whom, in times of dread alarm,
All eyes are turn'd, all bosoms warm—
What is there, station can bestow
Of honour, that he does not know?
What is there in the highest place,
To which he would not always give,
Ten-fold the dignity and grace
Than he, from it, could e'er receive?
No—while there ever lives on earth
One spark of love for human worth—
While public virtue can inspire
One single spark of gen'rous fire—
While ever freemen's bosoms glow
With grateful sense of what they owe—
Thy name shall live, and brighter shine,
As life draws near to its decline;
Thy useful, honour'd, stainless name,
The statesman's and the patriot's fame!
And when at last thy noble soul
Shall burst the bounds of earth's control,
While the free spirit wings its flight
To worlds of never-ending light,
A mourning nation's tears be thine,
A nation's hearts thy mem'ry's shrine!
And through the years of coming time,
In every land, in ev'ry clime,
Shall laurels, bright'ning with the day,
Cling ever round the name of CLAY!
