June 13th —

J. J. Graves Esq.

Sir. My engagements have prevented me replying at an earlier day to your communication of the 12th inst.

You inquire what in my opinion is the true construction of the Supplementary act passed at De S. J. Spain 1849. to the "Act relating to the importation of Passengers" as to the liability of the passengers without regard to age & commutation money in the absence of a bond being given; or do they remain except as under the original law.

I am constrained to say that the Supplementary act repeals the exemption, although I don't try much whether such was the intention of the Draughtsman of that Act, & certainly such was not the wish or intent of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore when they applied for the passage of the Supplement -

As I mentioned before in conversation by suppression of the Supplement were different at first view of the phraseology thinking that the language employed was not sufficient to repeal the original act in this particular; & though in my mind
