BA-1212 HERSEY HOUSE - c. 1880 - 19223 Middletown Road in angle with Rayville Road, north end of Rayville village. Not shown in 1877 atlas, but appears as Mrs. Scotts in 1898 Bromley atlas and as W. Scott's in 1915 issue. Two-story frame and clapboard (white) Victorian house on stone foundation, tin gable roof, cross-gabled, inside end-chimneys, wing to rear.
Owner: Dora I. Hersey.

BA-1213 EAGLE MILL HOUSE - 1880s - North side of Eagle Mill Road, 0.6 mile NE of Walker Road. Slender, two-story, frame house in rectangular form, with long porch and gable roof; vernacular style. Was part of the paper mill complex and survived burning of both mill and barn. Owner: Leonard Holding Company.

BA-1214 EAGLE MILL RUIN - Before 1850 - West side of Eagle Mill Road, north bank of Little Falls, just SW of Site No. BA 1213. Mill was shown on 1850 map as property of John Young, who is found listed as a paper manufacturer as early as the 1823 tax list. It was Gladfelter and Dushane's plant in 1877 atlas. Those owners had been
