BA-1528 PASTORAL RESIDENCE, BRADSHAW - 1895 - First structure west of (No. 8026) St. Stephen's Church, north side of Bradshaw Road. New "pastoral residence" was described in county paper as having been designed by builder Edward Reynolds and pastor, Don Luigi Sartori to replace a house that had been burned. Colonial revival style, composition shingle covering, hip roof, former porches enclosed. House was notable in its day for speaking tubes, electric bells, and indoor plumbing.