BA - 2088 UNION FACTORY CARPENTER SHOP - c. 1808 - 800 Oella Avenue, Oella. This two-story plus attic stone shop, six bays wide, in functional style, was photographed by the WPA HABS team in 1938, but was subsequently demolished by the eastward expansion of the brick woolen mill building in 1941. This was Building No. 8 on the insurance map of Oella and was directly across the street from the southern half of the Dutch Hotel (No. 835 Oella Avenue). These maps showed a brick garage tacked onto the shop. The building was plain, gable-roofed, probably of the first generation of Union Mfg. Company structures. See photo in Sun Magazine, November 2, 1975.

BA - 2089 SPRING STREET HOUSES, OELLA - 1830-40 - 929-931 Oella Avenue, Ellicott City vicinity. Row of brick duplex houses faces the riverbank just downstream of "Stone Row". This string of five structures is clearly shown in the 1859 bird's eye view of the valley by Sachse, and is considerably older, dating from at least the 1830s to 1840s. The houses are vernacular in style, a full three stories in height with full-scale sash windows at the top level. Roofing is gabled, sloping towards the street. Chimneys rise between halves of each duplex. There were no porches as shown in a photo of 1904, although enclosed, shed-roofed porches have appeared in this century. Where visible, foundations are of stone. Included within the Oella National Register Historic District in 1976.
