This Defendant has always understood and truly believed, for he has very often heard that these two had lived together, and he has always known the said Ann Aggrey to call herself a daughter, the said Margaret of her daughter, and has always known the said Margaret to call her mother: and he has the said Ann Aggrey as her mother: and it was the opinion and belief of all the Neighbors that the said Margaret was the daughter of the said Ann Aggrey and consequently that she was free and not a slave.
 And he is of the opinion, where I have had to put my hand, and that was a public sale of my office and that the said Margaret was a free woman and not a slave.
 And he is of the opinion, where
 I have had to put my hand, and that
 and that the said Margaret was
 a free woman and not a slave.
 I have had to put my hand, and that
 and that the said Margaret was
 a free woman and not a slave.
 I have had to put my hand, and that
 and that the said Margaret was
 a free woman and not a slave.
