B4-2476 MARCELLA CHAPEL CRYPT ca. 1827 - 9527 Old Court Road, Granite vicinity. The large Worthington family crypt survives on the grounds of the vanished Marcella Chapel, a Methodist church established on land deeded to trustees in 1827 by Rezin H. Worthington, whose wife

DISTRICT 2 - continued - and daughter were both named Marcella. (See Jeffersonian, October 10, 1947; deeds, WG 188:513). When St. Paul's was established in Granite village in 1877, the old chapel was turned over to a black congregation, which used it until 1886 when the building became ruinous.