Bohemia Hill is a two-and one-half story dwelling with mansard roof ~~which has been~~ covered with stucco. ~~It appears to be an earlier building than the period of the mansard roof.~~ It is three bays long and two bays deep. A one-story porch is attached to the west facade and part of the south. The room on the north side of the center hall has elaborate Georgian carved detail ~~(which seems almost out of place).~~ The house is situated on a high hill overlooking the Bohemia and Elk Rivers.

The building is of an earlier period than its mansard roof
