DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The basic structure of this house is an early 19th century dwelling similar to many one and one-half story houses in the Neck district, specifically, the smaller wings of Mill Point Farm. It has a small section with two dormers facing south with an addition at right angles toward the north. On the west side of the building is a 20th century addition. On the south and east side of the dwelling is a screened porch.

The house has been greatly remodeled so that the form is the only part of the house which indicates its antiquity.

On the property is an early one-room structure which may have been part of the original house.
