Will of Charity Carter

In the name of God amen.

I Charity Carter of Frederick County state of Maryland, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and understanding, considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof and being desirous to settle the my worldly affairs and thereby be the better prepared to leave this world when it shall please God to call me hence do therefore make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament in manner following, that is to say.—

First and principally, I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God, and my body to the Earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executor hereinafter named,

Secondly, I give devise and bequeath to my daughter Fannie Webb all the furniture, goods and personal effects excepting those that are herinafter named, that are now in my possession or which may be in my possession at the time of my death and which are now used or may be used, by me, at in and upon the premises where I now reside on East Second Street Frederick.

I likewise give bequeath to my daughter Elizabeth Jane Baile Three Parlor Mantle chandeliers, the same three ~~that~~ are now in my possession and excepting as herein before mentioned.

Likewise I bequeath to my daughter Lucinda Nicodemus Eight Hundred Dollars.

I give devise and bequeath the land which I own in Liberty District commonly called by me "My Field" as tenants in common the said field adjoining the land of Milton Carter
