No. 7247 Equity.

Testimony vs.

Geil Int. To the General Interrogatory propounded by the Examiner.— And I only know further is a specified way that Edward S. Wertz paid the expenses at the New London Mines and my recollection is that on several occasions he sent me his individual check to pay the State and County taxes on the property. I look at the five checks now shown me (filed with the Examiner and marked Exhibits E.S.-1. 2. 3. 4. 5) they are five checks on the Allentown National Bank and the signature thereto attached are in the proper handwriting of Edward S. Wertz with whose hand writing I am familiar.

Charles W. Ross.

Whereupon there being no other witnesses to be examined; and no further time being required for the production of testimony, the said Examiner herewith certifies that the aforegoing are the true and original depositions in this cause as the same were read over to and signed by the witnesses respectfully.
And the said Examiner herewith returns the same enclosed with the several Exhibits filed with him, to your Honorable Court.

Witness my hand and seal this 28th day of October A.D. 1901.

Albert S. Brown, Examiner, (Seal)
