Mrs. Elmer Burgess buried on Thursday

Requiem mass was said at St James P.E. Church Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Elmer Burgess, 64, 2400 Montebello Terrace, wife of the Dunbar High School athletic director.

Mrs. Burgess was taken suddenly ill at her Morgan Park home on Sunday morning and died eleven hours later at Johns Hopkins Hospital. Death was due to a heart ailment.

A former teacher of home economics at the Douglass High School, Mrs. Burgess retired in August 1948, after 28 years' service.

Father Cedric E. Mills officiated at the bridal rites. Music was by the church choir with William Parrott at the organ.

The services originally planned for Wednesday were changed to Thursday to allow proper notice to out-of-town relatives.

MRS. BURGESS was the last surviving child of the late Estell Griffin Wilkens and Charles Wilkens. She was born on December 13, 1892 in St. Paul, Minn., where her father was a barber for many years.

At the death of her sister, Mrs. Grace McCard Imes in January 1957, Mrs. Burgess remained the only living member of her immediate family. . .

She was reared in Chicago where her father practiced his barber trade and came to Baltimore to join her sister, Mrs. McCard-Imes, who had settled here.

LAUREL CEMETERY DEED—This is a reproduction of the top of an actual deed of the Laurel Cemetery Co. dated May 23, 1874, signed by D.H. Emmy, president. It reads in part: "That the Laurel Cemetery Company for and in consideration of the sum of Twenty Dollars, to them in hand paid by Roxanna Weaver of Baltimore City, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged do hereby grant, bargain, sell and convey to the said Roxanna Weaver, her heirs and assigns, all that lot of land in the Laurel Cemetery, laid down in the plan of said cemetery in the office of said company and therein designated as Lot No. 241 in Area C containing eighty superficial feet. . And the said Laurel Cemetery Company, do hereby covenant to and with the said Roxanna Weaver her heirs and assigns, that they are lawfully seized of the herein granted premises in fee simple,—that they have the right to sell and convey the same for the purposes above expressed, and they will warrant and defend the same unto the said Roxanna Weaver her heirs and assigns forever." The purchaser was the grandmother of Mrs. Pauline Jackson of the 2000 block Madison Ave.

THIS IS a reproduction of the top of the outside of a deed of the Laurel Cemetery Co. made out to Roxanna Weaver for one lot in area C. Records of burials on the deed shows: Thomas Weaver Jr., 1874; Bud Smith, Sept. 14, 1885; Roxanna Weaver Smith, April 3, 1887; Elizabeth Stevens, five months, April 17, 1911; Ruby E. Smith, eight months, July 15, 1913; Andrew A. Jackson, August 19, 1925; Elizabeth Jackson, July 15, 1946.

STATE TAX RECORDS also stipulate that the three men will serve as directors of the firm until the first annual meeting is held, or until their successors are duly chosen.

The principal office location for the firm is given as 1231 Munsey Bldg., with Mr. Kaufman designated as resident agent.

Belair Road Enterprises Inc. has a total authorized capital stock of $100,000 that can be divided into 2,000 shares of common stock with a par value of $50 each. Each share of stock entitles the holder to one vote.

THE SALE OF the property was made possible under a bill introduced in the General Assembly by Carl W. Bacharach and Marvin Mandel, both Democratic members of the House of Delegates from the Fifth District.

Mr. Bacharach is also a member of the City's Law Department.

The bill, which was signed by Governor McKeldin, authorizes the closing of a cemetery when 75 per cent of the acreage has been abandoned and the place is a menace detrimental to the public, health safety security or welfare.

The acting city solicitor, Hugo A. Ricciuti, said that he will make an investigation to determine whether there is any conflict of interest involved in the purchase of the cemetery by members of the Law Department.

* * *

ON THURSDAY, Mr. Ricciuti told the AFRO:

"I am still investigating and it will be some time before a decision can be reached."

The solicitor explained that he was examining all records pertaining to the cemetery and because of the volume of such records it would be some time before the task could be completed.

Since the publication of the story of the moving of the cemetery, which dates back to 1852, a number of persons have appeared at the AFRO offices with deeds to burial lots at Laurel.

One of these was brought in by Mrs. Sadie Cooper, 960 Stoddard Ct., and was made out to Charles Cooper, her late father-in-law.

The paper was dated Oct. 19, 1868.

ONE OF the criticisms leveled against the sale of the property was the fact that persons with relatives in the cemetery did not learn of the sale of the property until it was reported in the newspaper.

Persons connected with the sale said notice did appear in the Daily Record, but it was pointed out that the average person would have no cause to read the publication which is devoted to legal news.

* * *

MEANTIME, Mr. Mercaldo said that all the remains that could be located along with a number of tombstones have been removed from Laurel and placed in a new site in Carroll County some 22 miles from Baltimore.

In speaking of the plans for this new cemetery, which is three acres in size as compared with 15 acres of the old one, Mr. Mercaldo said that no arrangements had been made for perpetual care since there was none available at the old cemetery.

He also said that survivors could have the bodies of the relatives moved from the new cemetery to another site if they so desired and the cost of such a move would be borne by the New Laurel Cemetery Co., which was set up to administer the property.

"There will be some sort of care at the new cemetery such as the cutting of grass several times a year and it will never become like the old cemetery," he added.
