French music magazine.

AN ACCOMPLISHED drummer, he has recorded with well known artists Bill Coleman, Mary Lou Williams, Hazel Scott, Bobby Jasper, Henri Renaud and Lionel Hampton as well as Buck Clayton, Jonah Jones and Lucky Thompson.

He owns a villa located in Vaucresson, a suburb of Paris where the couple will establish residence.

The wedding is scheduled in civil ceremony at the Paris City Hall at 10:30 a.m. on Dec. 27 while religious rites will be said at the 11:30 a.m. nuptial mass in the 300-year-old chapel of the Saint Denise Catholic Church, Vaucresson, where the Pochonet family are members.

Attendants at the civil ceremonies include best man, Mezz Mezzrow, famed international jazz figure and matron of honor, Hazel Scott, internationally famous pianist.

Among wedding guests will be socialite Parisiennes of whom M. Pochonet's mother is considered a leader as well as top flight recording stars and international musicians.

The wedding party will fly to the family estate located on the Mediterranean Sea at Rosas, Province de Gerone, Espagne, (Spain), for the wedding breakfast.

The newly weds will reside at the villa there after a brief honeymoon at favorite haunts on the Riviera. They plan to come to Baltimore on April 15, 1959.

Miss Holloman will depart for France on December 24 and will fly transcontinental clipper directly to Paris.

IN PREPARATION for the wedding, Miss Holloman, who is non Catholic, will be baptized at ceremonies at St. Pius R. C. Church in Baltimore on Saturday.

Witnesses are Mrs. Maud Woodland, Mrs. Catherine Law, Mrs. Marie Tyler and Mrs. Elizabeth Crudup.

FOR HER wedding gown Miss Holloman has chosen an original imported white brocade satin formal dinner suit. The slim sheath is set off by a chemise jacket embroidered in pearls.

A mist of French tulle forms the waist length veil which cascades from a satin, pearl encrusted pill box chapeau.

Miss Holloman's gloves are white and to the elbow. Her slippers are white satin with pearl clips.

As a bridal bouquet, she will carry two long sprays of white lilacs imported from the tropics.

A wedding song composed by M. Pochonet, the groom-to-be, and Miss Scott is entitled "Lilacs in December."

ON TUESDAY this reporter interviewed Miss Holloman at her North Ave. home. She disclosed how she met M. Pochonet and retold the story of their romance which is very much like a saga from one of the Cinderella books.

She showed color movies and slides of herself and "my Gerard," as she affectionately calls her husband-to-be, taken on the Riviera and on family estates in France and Spain.

Tiny and possessor of a sparkling personality, Miss Holloman has acquired conversational French and uses her expressive hands as she speaks.

She said: "I'm just a hard working girl who has seen hardships since I was left an orphan at an early age.

"I had wonderful godparents who cared for me and they still reside with me.

"I took up beauty culture after I finished high school and many is the night I have worked late and until weak stood out on my feet and legs.

"I HAD no claim to fame but I was willing to work for some of the finer things I wanted.

"One of them was a trip to France. I finally made it by saving enough money and I took my first trip on the Liberte, Ship in 1956.

"I returned for another vacation later that year and again in 1957.

"It was in September, 1957 when Gerard and I were introduced in Paris by mutual friends.

"The bride-to-be stated that she has commuted to Paris since their engagement and has flown there four times since, at Christmas, Easter, July and Labor Day. She returned to Baltimore just three weeks ago in late November.

AS SHE SPOKE, Miss Holloman fingered a large gold mounted topaz ring suspended on a golden chain around her neck.

"The ring is Gerard's, she explained, a token of his love to be worn near her heart.

According to family tradition, Miss Holloman will receive the engagement ring shortly before the wedding at a ceremony in the home of the husband-elect's parents.

The wedding band and engagement ring are both fashioned of "hundreds of diamonds" she says, set in platinum.

Miss Holloman stated that she was formally "approved" by the family at Christmas, 1957, at the villa in Vaucresson and since then has been considered one of the family.

She added "I love Gerard because he is such a fine, good person. He loves me, too.

"He is devoted to his family and is a most interesting personality.

"He has a stamp collection worth thousands of dollars and he writes for many French publications.

"He is interested in jazz as a respected and time-honored form of music and his band is known all over Europe as one of the foremost jazz bands.

MISS HOLLOMAN also said: "It isn't easy to get married in France.

"When I was there around Labor Day we went through ten days of red tape from attorney's offices to the City Hall to the American Embassy and many other places.

"Since he is Catholic, I had to take instructions in the Catholic Church to prepare to be christened. Priests here in Baltimore as well as those at the Saint Demise Church in Vaucresson had to be consulted.

"Copies of my photograph and my birth certificate had to be mailed to various offices in France.

"Miss Holloman revealed that her husband-elect's mother is now married to Mario Marcoux who is president of a shipbuilding firm as well as an oil company of which Mme. Marcoux is heiress. She is descendant of an old French family.

Miss Holloman's godparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey of the North Ave. address, Baltimore.

Her sister is Miss Maggie Holloman also of Baltimore.

this time. She must be cleared of all scar tissue first.

The hospital also said that everything is being done to keep Barbara Jean free from infection until she grows the skin to cover her scars.

DOCTORS ALSO stated that Barbara Jean is already a medical rarity. Few persons with first and second degree burns over two-thirds of their body survive after 48 hours.

"Our hopes have moderately increased . . . the situation is more encouraging," was the answer to a reporter's question asking what are Barbara Jean's chances.

Meantime, the small child has been moved to a private room (No. 311) in a more spacious section of the hospital (3 South.).

When an AFRO reporter told her many people had responded to the plea for blood donors and that they were praying for her, she answered, 'Oh, thank you.'

Barbara Jean suffered the painful burns on Nov. 21, while playing in the 200 block N. Parrish St., near her home.

SOUTHWESTERN District police report that a group of boys, ages 7, 8 and 9, set a fire on a vacant lot and rolled a drum containing an unknown liquid on the fire. Her clothes caught fire who the drum exploded. No arrests have been made.

BARBARA JEAN is one of four children of Mrs.. Viola McDonald, 405 N. Stricker St. Because her mother is expecting another child next month, doctors have advised her not to visit Barbara at the hospital. A family friend makes the visits.

Barbara was in the 1st grade at School No. 240, Carrollton Ave. and Lexington St.

Her teacher, Miss Irma Tyler, told the AFRO, Barbara had a reputation as "a sweet little girl, who was just beginning to make progress."

AFRO readers rush to give blood for Barbara Jean Brown

Baltimoreans — over 80 of them — responded to the plea to give blood and skin for Barbara Jean Brown, as soon as Tuesday's AFRO hit the streets.

By 5p.m., Tuesday, Franklin Square Hospital reported it had processed 12 blood donors and there were countless others waiting in the lobby.

Typical of those who came was Richard Mallory of 820 E. Eager St. who said "I have a daughter a month old. That's one of the reasons I came.

"It makes me want to cry when I read or hear something like that."

OTHERS GAVE similar reasons.

Robert West of 2223 W. Fayette St. said, "I have a son 9 years old and I'd want people to do the same for him."

WAITING IN line on Tuesday waiting to give blood were these AFRO readers:

Thomas C. Ost, 1500 block Lexington St.; Joseph Williams, 1100 blk. Orleans St.; Loms J. Henderson, 1500 blk. Baker St.; Wilbur Pitman, 300 blk. Fremont Ave.;

Also, William Chambers, 1700 blk. Bayard St.; Lamar Roberts, 200 blk. N. Carey St.; Miss Shirley Savage, 500 blk. McMechen St., and James W. Hines, 1100 block N. Stricker St.

Because Barbara Jean requires a pint of blood a day, the hospital said on Thursday, she will need many more blood donors. Interesting persons may apply at the hospital (110 N. Calhoun, near Fayette) any day from 6:30 to 9 p.m., Saturdays and Sundays included.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, tissue actually improved, was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved painlessly. And painless gentle relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinkage) took place. And most amazing of all, this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months.

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a large side variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — the discovery of a world famous research institution. Already Bio-Dyne is in use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment, with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

A TRIP TO REMEMBER—Now that their trip overseas is completed and they are back in their Morgan Park home, Bishop and Mrs. Edgar A. Love have these souvenirs to keep the memory of the trip always bright.

Bishop, Mrs. Love return to States

"It was a most interesting, pleasurable and exciting trip."

Mrs. Edgar A. Love, wife of the bishop of the Methodist Church was speaking of the three-month trip she and her husband spent in Europe and Africa.

They returned to their Morgan Park home, 2416 Montebello Terrace, on Dec. 8.

Bishop and Mrs. Love traveled abroad under the auspices of the Council of Bishops of the Methodist Church to inspect the Methodist missions and make recommendations for improving them.

THE BISHOP and his wife spent most of their time in Africa where he spoke on several occasions.

They described some of the African cities as beautiful places, particularly Southern Rhodesia where they made their headquarters.

They also spent short periods of time in England, Belgium, Egypt, Lebanon, and Jerusalem.

EN ROUTE to the states from Africa, Bishop and Mrs. Love stopped off in Paris, where the Bishop participated in Thanksgiving services at the American Church.

They left Paris Wednesday for the U.S. via the French Line Liberte and arrived in New York on Monday.

"We were glad to get back. It was an awfully strenuous trip," said Mrs. Love.

Of the many souvenirs brought back home, Bishop and Mrs. Love agree that the mahogany hand carved figurines are superior to those bought in the states.

Also among the souvenirs are native weapons, paintings, ivory carvings and cloth work.

These souvenirs will be kept and exhibited publicly to churches throughout the city and state.
