 All persons sending to the post office for letters are requested to send the money, as none will be delivered without. 2

Forty Silver Dollars, or Five Half Joes Reward,

FOR apprehending one of the most unprincipled fellows in the state of Maryland, a dark mulatto have named DICK, who absconded yesterday evening; he is about five feet eight inches high, well made and active, is about 28 years of age, has a scar by the right eye, which is very obvious upon examination; had with him an old turn'd cloth coat, jacket and breeches, yarn stockings, osnabrig shirt and trousers, a felt hat, a pair of shoes and steel buckles, with a few other cloathes, but if possible by any stroke of villainy to acquire more, I make no doubt he will effect it.—If caught great care ought to be taken to secure him properly, as he is master of such address that there is few people on whom he would not impose; he ran away about three months ago, and was brought from Bed Stone, but I conjecture that he will now make to the eastern shore, or to the Delaware state, or Pennsylvania, or endeavour to get on board some vessel. I will give the above reward to any person who will put him in Baltimore gaol, so that I get him again, or in addition thereto all reasonable travelling charges when delivered to me in the upper part of Anne-Arundel county and state of Maryland.

CHARLES ALEXANDER WARFIELD. 18

N. B. All masters of vessels and others are forewarned harbouring or carrying him off at their peril.

Elk-Ridge, May 10, 1788.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

STOLEN out of the subscriber's stable, on Tuesday night the 29th of April, a likely well made black MARE, mixed with white hairs, more so about her forehead, long and round made, about fourteen hands high, branded on the near buttock thus D, about eight years old, has a snip on her nose, part of her off hind foot white, with a white spot under her tail, trots and gallops, has a long bushy mane and tail, much rubbed with the breechband. Whoever takes up said mare and thief, and delivers them to the subscriber, and on conviction of the thief, shall receive the above reward, or fifty shillings for the mare alone.

2 JOSHUA DORSEY, sen.

May 24, 1788.

ON the petition of Gilbert Hamilton Smith, of Anne-Arundel county, to the chancellor, praying the benefit of the act of assembly, entitled, An act respecting insolvent debtors, notice is hereby given to the creditors of the said petitioner, that the 8th day of July next is appointed for a meeting of the said creditors, at the chancery office in the city of Annapolis, and that a trustee or trustees will be appointed on that day, on their behalf, according to the directions of the said act; and it is ordered that this notice be published six weeks in the Maryland Gazette.

2 Test. SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD, Reg. Cur. Can.

Port-Tobacco, February 25, 1788.

THE subscribers being appointed, by the honourable chancellor, trustees for Nicholas Serlott, an insolvent debtor, do request all persons indebted to the estate of the said Nicholas Serlott to make immediate payment, that they may have it in their power to complete the settlement of the said trust; all those who have claims against the said Serlott are requested to bring them in legally authenticated, otherwise they cannot be entitled to a dividend. Constant attendance will be given in Port-Tobacco for the purpose of receiving the debts due to the estate of the said Serlott, and in case of the absence of both of us, payments made to Mr. John Beale Turner will be good.

5 GEORGE DENT, ZEPHANIAH TURNER, } Trustees for N. Serlott.

Annapolis, May 15, 1788.

STRAYED or stolen, about the 1st instant, from off the commons of this city, a sorrel HORSE, about 14 hands high, three white feet, a blaze face, and switch tail. Any person delivering the said horse to John Chalmers, in said city, or unto me the subscriber, near Pig-Point, shall receive the sum of fifteen shillings.

JAMES COULLING.

Bennett's Point, Queen-Anne's county, Maryland, April 10, 1788.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of James Anderson, late of Queen-Anne's county, deceased, are desired to make immediate payment, and those having claims are requested to bring them in legally proved to the subscriber.

April 21, 1788.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber, being unable to discharge his debts, means to apply to the justices of Calvert county court, for the benefit of the act respecting insolvent debtors.

3X JOHN BREEZE.

TWENTY DOLLARS Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Saint Mary's county, and state of Maryland, a negro man named NACE, about twenty-five years of age, of a dark complexion, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high; his cloaths uncertain, as he had many, and very likely may shift them. The above negro formerly belonged to my brother Robert Abell, who lately removed to Kentucky, and believe he ran away on account of his unwillingness to go out with him, although I purchased him some time before, he thinking it was a sham sale, in order to keep him until my brother set off, and then that he was to be confined and carried out with him. The above reward will be paid to any one securing the said negro in any gaol so that I may get him again, and if brought home the above reward and all reasonable travelling charges, including what the law allows.

2 SAMUEL ABELL, Youngest.
