NOTICE is hereby
ing unable to di tition the justices of six weeks notice, for the benefit of the act respecting insolvent debtors. 6X FIELDER PARKER.

Annapolis, May 17, 1788.

AS there is a vacancy for establishing a vendue store in this city, where sellers and buyers may readily suit each other, where in addition to the speedy market at vendues always obtained for the sale of valuable goods, a variety of lumber, remnants of stores, and household furniture of little or no use to the holders or owners, generally meet with a rapid sale and store the owners pockets with considerable sums of money; which lumber, remnants and furniture, for want of such an institution, commonly moulder into dust.

Where gentlemen and others may readily accommodate themselves with new furniture, at a less price than what their old furniture will sometimes sell for.

The subscriber, patronised by eminent characters in this city, and encouraged by sundry of his friends in the country, humbly offers his services to the public in that capacity; he flatters himself that his thorough knowledge of, and diligent application to, the duties of that office, will merit for him the esteem of those who wish to employ him.

Sales will be held every Saturday, when every exertion will be used to give ample satisfaction, by the public's most obedient and most humble servant,

EDMUND HOGAN.

N. B. He lives between the printing-office and stadt-house. 3X

May 16, 1788.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of Philip Carsey, late of Montgomery county, deceased, are desired to make immediate payment, and all those having claims against it are requested to bring them in legally proved to the subscribers, by the first day of September next.

3X LAURENCE O'NEALE, ALICE CARSEY, } administrators.

ROEBUCK.

THE beautiful thorough bred horse ROEBUCK, ten years old next spring, the property of the subscriber, will cover the ensuing season at the subscriber's plantation in Charles county, at five pounds current money a mare, but if paid by the first day of August next, three pounds, and a dollar to the groom, will be received in lieu of five pounds. It is useless to insert his pedigree, as it is so well known, but it may be seen at his stable. Good pasturage is provided for mares that come a distance, gratis, and great care will be taken of them, but will not be answerable for accidents or escapes.

WILLIAM M. WILKINSON.

NOTICE.

THE honourable the chancellor of Maryland having granted an injunction on the application of the subscriber, and other executors of William Neill, deceased, against Thomas M'Intire and Isabella his wife, executrix of said William Neill, enjoining, directing and prohibiting, the said Thomas M'Intire and Isabella his wife, and each of them, from collecting, receiving or demanding, any sum or sums of money due to the estate of the said William Neill, from any person or persons whatsoever; these are to give notice to all and every person and persons indebted to the estate of William Neill, deceased, not to pay or in any manner settle or adjust the respective claims against them with the said Thomas M'Intire and Isabella his wife, or either of them, as such payments or settlements will be made in their own wrong, and they will be obliged to account with the subscriber again for the same, the said Thomas M'Intire and Isabella his wife having at this time no authority to interfere or meddle with the personal estate of the testator.

HERCULES COURTENAY, acting executor of WILLIAM NEILL. 3

TAKEN up as a stray by NATHAN COOKE, a bay MARE, about 3 years old, a large star in her forehead, her left hind foot white to her fetlock, no perceiveable brand, nor dock, and appears to be unbroke, about thirteen and half hands high. The owner may have her again by proving property and paying charges. 2
