HYMN OF THE MONTH

"Oh For A Heart To Praise My God"

GO TO THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE THIS SUNDAY AND JOIN IN WITH YOUR FAVORITE CHOIR SINGING THIS INSPIRATIONAL HYMN

O FOR A HEART TO PRAISE MY GOD

O for a heart to praise my God, A heart from sin set free;
A heart that's sprinkled with the blood So freely shed for me.
O for a heart submissive, meek, My great Redeemer's throne,
Where only Christ is heard to speak, Where Jesus reigns alone.
Thy temper, gracious Lord, impart; Come quickly from above;
O write Thy name upon my heart! Thy new, best name of love.

140 youths at 2-day church fellowship

By SYLVIA L. BROWNE

EASTON, Md. — From June 14-16, more than 140 youths attended the 15th annual MYP Assembly here of the Easton District. Forty adults, including ministers, laymen, and teachers, were also present.

The purpose of this assembly is to acquaint youth with God and to prepare them for work in the MYP as well as for leading more wholesome lives as Christians.

The morning and afternoon sessions were held at the Robert Moton High School and the evening sessions at Asbury Methodist Church.

The theme, "Christian Witnessing in a Changing World," was portrayed in the devotional programs, the discussion groups and the group studies.

THESE GROUP studies were designed for three age groups: Intermediates (12-14), Seniors and Older Youth, and Adults.

For the intermediates, the class "What It Means to be a Church Member" was offered. The instructors were Mrs. Elsie G. Earle, Mrs. Mary E. Jones, the Revs. J. I. Jones and H. R. Snead.

The Seniors and Older Youth discussed "Youth and Evangelism" taught by the Revs. C. E. Jordon, S. L. Jones and H. E. Anderson.

"Beliefs of a Methodist Christian," taught by Dr. W. R. Hazard, the district superintendent, and the Rev. T. M. Murray, was presented to the adults.

• • •

TIME WAS provided for play as well as work. During this period, the adults and the youth happily indulged in softball, basketball, singing, and indoor games. The recreational leader was the Rev. J. R. Williams of Centreville.

There were also morning and evening devotional programs. On the evening of June 14, A beautiful and inspirational Communion Service was held at Asbury M. Church. The speaker was Dr. W. R. Hazzard.

• • •

OTHER POINTS of interest were the addresses given by the Revs. L. H. Nichols, conference director of Youth Work, C. E. Jordon, district director of Youth Work, and M. O. Ballard, manager of the Delaware Conference MYP Assembly.

On June 15, a Commitment Service was held at the church.

The assembly president was Miss Janis Henry from Goldsboro, Md. and a junior at Morgan College.

The officers for the coming year are: president, Miss Barbara Ennels; vice president, George Austin; secretary-Miss Donna Brown; assistant secretary, Miss Barbara Broadway; treasurer, Leonard Deedon; pianist, Miss Romaine Wolford; assistant pianists, Misses Connie Magee and Sylvia Browne.

The program area chairmen are Christian Faith, William Taylor, Christian Witness, Miss Sarah Shepherd; Christian Outreach, Miss Martha Ricketts, Christian Citizenship.

Much of the success of the assembly was due to the excellent hospitality and the adult leadership. The Rev. G. M. Phelps Jr. of Oxford, Md. was the Dean. The Adult Leader was the Rev. S. L. Jones, the Director of Youth, the Rev. C. E. Jordon, and the Director of Children, Mrs. Elsie G. Earle.

Painter drowns in Potomac River

ELLICOTT CITY—William E. Wright, 24, of Frederick, Md. plunged from the Potomac River Bridge on Route 301 early Wednesday morning while painting the bridge and presumably drowned. The body had not been recovered on Thursday.

The victim is said to have a brother, Edward Jay, and a father in Youngstown, Ohio.

City's oldest citizen buried

Mayor among 250 at Ross rites

Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Camphor Ross, Baltimore's oldest citizen who died at the age of 116 last week, were held Monday at Orchard St. ME Church with the Rev. Vivian Keys officiating.

Approximately 250 persons including Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro, passed the flower covered bier of the woman who heard Lincoln's Gettysburg address.

Her pink casket was borne to and from the hearse by members of the church.

• • •

WHEN MRS. ROSS celebrated her 115th birthday, she received congratulations from President Eisenhower, Governor McKeldin, Sen. John Marshall Butler and the Mayor.

She voted for the first time at the age of 110 and, according to her family, voted the Republican ticket until she met Mayor D'Alesandro. From then on she voted as a Democrat.

Upon learning of her death the Mayor said: "To know her was to love her." At services Tuesday he declared: "I have had the privilege of visiting Mrs. Ross on her birthday and I deemed it an honor."

"She lived a good life and was loved by everyone. As Mayor, and from a personal standpoint, the family has my deepest sympathy."

• • •

A DISTANT cousin of Harriet Tubman, Mrs. Ross died at Johns Hopkins Hospital last Tuesday after suffering a stroke. She was under regular care at Hopkins due to a heart condition.

Prior to her death Mrs. Ross was active to the extent that she attended church regularly, and cared for the children of her great-niece, Mrs. Edmna Jones, with whom she resided at 808 Druid Hill Ave.

Mrs. Ross was known throughout the neighborhood as "Aunt Annie" he was born in Madison, Dorchester County, Md., and was married twice.

Her first husband was a Union Army veteran who died a few years after their marriage. Her second husband was the late Rev. Augustus Ross, a Methodist minister.

Mrs. Ross's only child, Mrs. Vivola Taylor, died 20 years ago. Her brother, Andrew Camphor, died at the age of 106.

In addition to Mrs. Jones, she is survived by two nephews, David and William A. Keene of Cambridge, Md.
