C. O. Brannon, 44, dies suddenly

"It was hard to believe. He never complained about feeling ill. There was a condition that the doctors thought needed to be checked and he died on the operating table. It was just as sudden as that."

Mrs. Mary Lee Brannon was reporting the death of her husband, Charles O. Brannon, 44, of 2225 East Biddle St.

He is survived by one son, Charles Samuel, three daughters: Mary, Juanita and Maggie.

Also, two brothers, Samuel and Thomas, and two sisters, Mesdames Julia Richards and Leona Winsor.

FUNERAL SERVICES were held at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church. The Rev. Isaac Williams officiated. Interment was in Mt. Calvary Cemetery.

Community Baptist Church, The Rev. James Green, pastor, officiated.

In addition to his wife, the deceased is survived by one son, Jerome H. Bailey.

Funeral held Monday for J. H. Bailey

"He had been ailing with a heart condition for four years but before his illness, he had worked for years as a janitor."

Mrs. Blanche Bailey was telling the AFRO about the death of her husband, James H. Davis, 65, of 933 West Fayette St.

Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at the

Leroy Moore buried on Christmas eve

"He had been sick for three years. He was hurt in an accident and never was well again. Most of the time he could not speak and never could feed himself."

"But on the day before he died, he came home and told me that the Lord had forgiven him for everything, and we talked for quite a while."

"The doctors and nurses were surprised. I was not because I had been answering my prayers."

And this was the way Mrs. Connie Moore reported the death of her husband to the AFRO.

Funeral services were held for Leroy Moore, 47, of 527 Brice St., on Monday afternoon at the Charity Baptist Church. The Rev. S. L. Turner, pastor, officiated.

Interment was in Arbutus Memorial Park.

Washington man victim No. 531

BELTSVILLE — Maryland's 531st traffic fatality of the year came early Thursday morning when a car, police said was driven by Charles Chandler, 27, 700 block 19th St., NE., Washington, plowed into the rear of a truck.

Pronounced dead at the Leland Memorial Hospital in Riverdale was Orlando Hill, 22, 1400 block Eastern Ave., also of Washington. Mr. Chandler was admitted to the hospital with a fractured skull.

Prince Georges County police said that the 1952 Ford, owned by Mr. Hill, collided with a large truck which was stopped for a red light on U.S. Route 1, near Beltsville.

The Hill car was a total wreck, police said. The death marked the state's 531st fatality as compared to 488 at the same time last year.
