LOTTERY.

P. FITZHUGH presents his compliments to those friends to whom was committed the disposal of his lottery tickets, and will be much obliged by their notifying to him as early as possible their respective successes in the sale of them; he has already had returns sufficient to warrant him in saying that the lottery will certainly be drawn in the course of the ensuing fall, and he will thank those gentlemen who may not be able to dispose of all the tickets in their possession by the first day of September, for returning immediately after such as may be then unsold.

Baltimore, July 1, 1793.

THE subscribers propose opening in this town, should sufficient encouragement offer for that purpose, a CIRCULATING LIBRARY. The advantages arising from such an institution, to the public, are too obvious and well understood to make much recommendation on the subject in this way necessary, to induce a discerning, enlightened public, to patronise it. Let it suffice to say, that of all methods generally used for communicating knowledge, this is the easiest, most advantageous, and least expensive to the generality of readers. This library is principally collected already, and will consist of 3000 volumes, judiciously chosen, in the different branches of religious, entertaining, and polite literature, and shall be augmented from time to time, by such new publications, and other works, as may be found agreeable to the taste, and will add to the entertainment of the patrons thereof.

E. VALLETTE and Co.

N. B. Subscriptions for the above LIBRARY, taken in at the printing-office, Annapolis.

ALL persons having balances due them on tobacco, shipped to the address of Messieurs WILLIAM ANDERSON and Co. of LONDON, per my procuration, are desired to take notice, that it is necessary their bills on said company should be endorsed by me, or they will not be paid.

All those indebted to said company, for transactions through my agency, are earnestly requested to make immediate payment; and, in order to accommodate such as may find it more convenient to discharge their balances at Elk-Ridge Landing, during the present inspection of tobacco, they will please to take notice, that I have furnished Mr. Benjamin Gwynn with a list of balances, and copies of each person's account, who is authorised to settle with such as may apply.

The subscriber is instructed to require a strict observance to this notice, and he flatters himself it will be duly attended to and complied with, without further trouble or delay; but if, contrary to his wish and expectation, it should be neglected, he will be under the disagreeable necessity of commencing suits against all delinquents, without the least distinction, after the first day of September next.

Robert Peter, colonel William Deakins, Benjamin Stoddert, Thomas Beall of George, John Threlkeld, and Samuel Davidson, Esquires, George-Town. George Walker, Esquire, city of Washington. Wallace and Muir, and John Davidson, Esquires, Annapolis.

This scheme contains several very valuable lots of land contiguous to the city of Washington, whose increase in value will keep pace with the growth of the rising empire of the United States of America—Hence, therefore, without any further definition, it will be evident that for the small sum of one Guinea a valuable and beautiful country seat may be obtained in the vicinity of the capital of America; or a lot in a town now possessing an extensive commerce.

The subscriber proposes drawing this Lottery in the City of Washington, on the 9th September next, or sooner, if the tickets are all sold, which he flatters himself will be the case from his present prospects. Deeds, with a general warranty, will immediately be given for the lots of land, and the money for the cash prizes will be paid on demand. Notice will be given of the drawing in the public papers, and a list of the fortunate numbers will be immediately published. The crop now on the lots is reserved to the subscriber. A plot of the lots may be seen at Mr. George Mann's.

TICKETS may be had of Messrs. Wallace and Muir, John Davidson, Esquires, and Mr. George Mann.
