No 7767. Equity

Opinion of Court

Filed December 9th 1904.

Benjamine F. Reich. Trustee etc vs
Jeannette Nelson et al

No 7767 Equity In the Circuit Court for Frederick Sitting as a Court of Equity.

The Bill was filed in the above cause by Benjamine F Reich a Trustee of certain trust funds Created by the last will and testament of Valentine Adams deceased in order to obtain the judgment of this Court as an aid and protection in Making distribution of said trust funds now in his hands. the time having arrived for such distribution. The Trustee has in his hands the Sum of $1171 69 derived through one claim of the will of Said Valentine Adams. and the further Sum of $4000 which came through the provisions of another claim of said will. and there are the Sums awaiting distribution.

By his last will and testament said Valentine Adams set apart in trust the sum of Six Thousand Dollars for the benefit of his wife for life. and after so doing he provided that after her death it be devided among my daughters Sarah Ann Shaut Valietta Weagley Jeanett Nelson, Fannie Adams. and my Son Abraham. Share and Share alike. and I do direct that the portion of my said daughters be invested by my executor. and the interest or dividends arising therefrom as the same may be received be paid to my said daughters during life. and after their death. in Case they leave Children. to their Children, my intent being that upon the death of any of my said daughters. that her portion thereof should then vest in her Children. and Should any of my aforesaid daughters die without leaving children or child. then living I will and direct that her portion or Share be devided among my Surviving daughters. and the children or child of any of my daughters who may then be dead per stirpes and not per Capita".

1904

The widow died Some years ago. and the trust fund of Six Thousand Dollars was then divided up into five Six portions representing the four daughters and