One Guinea Reward.

STEPHEN, (who sometimes is by his countrymen called STEPHEN BRADLEY) a black man, about five feet seven inches high, and appears to be about twenty-three or twenty-four years of age, a likely plausible fellow, rather of a shining black, ran away from the subscriber, on the seventeenth June last, who has been informed that Stephen has a father, who is a preacher, and lives with Mr. HUTCHINGS BELT, near Upper-Marlborough, and that Stephen, also, sometimes preaches. He was brought into Virginia by colonel Mercer, who had him from Mr. Richard Sprigg, near Annapolis, where it is likely he may now be, unless he should be in the neighbourhood of Marlborough, amongst his relations. The above reward will be paid by the subscriber, to any person who secures said fellow, and gives immediate information, so that he may be got again; and all reasonable charges paid, if brought home.

One Thousand Dollars Reward.

SOME few COUNTERFEIT POST NOTES of the Bank of Maryland, having been lately discovered in circulation, and on tracing the same were found to come from the back parts of Virginia, where they have probably first issued; to avoid imposition, it is thought necessary to give the following description of them, by which they may be readily detected:—

They have the letter D for their alphabetical mark, at the left hand side of the note.

The paper on which they are printed is more soft and tender, the strokes of the letters in the engraving are in general stronger, and have a darker appearance than in the true bills.

The signature, Wm. Patterson, is badly done; the strokes of all the letters are stiff and laboured, and appear to be painted over with the pen, as well as the flourish under the name.

The value is left blank in the engraving, to be filled in in writing, so that the sum may be more or less, as pleases.

No true Post Notes of the alphabetical mark above described, have been lately issued, and very few are now in circulation.

The above reward of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS will be paid to the person or persons who shall discover and prosecute to conviction the several offenders, or any of them, of the following description, viz.

The person or persons who manufactured the paper on which the bills are printed.

The person or persons who engraved the plate.

The printer or printers of the bills.

Every person who has acted as principal in any way, in the counterfeiting and uttering the said bills.

WM. PATTERSON, President of the Bank of Maryland.

Baltimore, April 7, 1794.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living in Annapolis, on the 18th day of July, a negro lad named LEVIN, about eighteen or twenty years of age, five feet four or five inches high; had on when he went away a round osnaburg jacket, with sleeves, shirt and trousers of the same, and had on an iron collar. The negro is the property of Mr. DE LA LANDELLE, and left with me to sell. Whoever takes up the said negro and secures him in any gaol, so that I get him again, shall receive SIX DOLLARS reward, and if brought home all reasonable charges, paid by the subscriber.

EDWARD ROBERTS.

N. B. All masters of vessels, and others, are forbid carrying off or in any manner entertaining or receiving him, at their peril. 4

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Saint Mary's county, near Benedict-town, on Patuxent river, on Wednesday the 25th instant, a negro man by the name of SHADRACH, of a yellow complexion, twenty-two years of age, about five feet three or four inches high, smooth face as well as back, he never had a stripe thereon by one who owned him; had on when he went away, as I am informed, a blue broad cloth coat with large metal buttons, a striped vest with metal buttons, a pair of olive coloured breeches, a white linen shirt ruffled at the bosom, white thread stockings, a pretty good high crowned hat, shoes and metal buckles; he had many other cloaths not particularly enough known to describe. Whoever takes up the said slave, and secures him in any gaol, so that I get him again, if out of the state of Maryland shall receive FIVE POUNDS current money, and if in the aforesaid state THREE POUNDS, and if brought home all reasonable charges, paid by

The Young Ladies Academy.

THE subscriber, having lately finished his education at an university in New England, begs leave to inform the public, that he has opened an ACADEMY, at the house of Mr. OTHELLO MILLS, now occupied by Mr. WILLIAM GILSON, for the instruction of young ladies, in the various branches of useful literature, viz. in reading, writing, arithmetic, English grammar, composition, elocution, geography, logic, natural and moral philosophy, and the Latin and Greek languages.—The superior advantages, which institutions of this kind have over those schools, where reading, writing, and arithmetic only are taught, whose regulations admit both sexes, are too apparent to need a comment. And the rapidity with which academies for the education of young ladies are increasing, in different parts of the union, and the encouragement which they derive from our enlightened fellow-citizens, are ample demonstrations of the utility of such institutions, and that the progress of the daughter in knowledge is as dear to the parent as that of the son. Academies, colleges, and universities, have been instituted for the improvement of the latter, while those doors to scientific knowledge have been too long shut against the relatives of the former. Presuming that the inhabitants of Annapolis will not be behind their fellow-citizens, in other parts of the United States, in the necessary accomplishments, which concern the future happiness of their daughters, the subscriber flatters himself that he shall receive the patronage of a candid public, as far as he may be entitled upon the ground of merit.

The price, to those who learn to read and write, will be four dollars per quarter, and four dollars entrance: to those whose studies are upon the other branches, the same entrance, and six dollars per quarter. As it is not the instructor's ambition to have a large circle of young ladies, that he may be able to do the greater justice to those who may come to the academy, he presumes his prices will not be thought high.

2 PAUL GROUT.

Eight Dollars Reward.

STRAYED or was stolen, out of pasture, on the seventh of May last, an iron grey HORSE, about fifteen hands high, long mane, and about seven or eight years old, a natural pacer, was never shod, and is branded on the right shoulder with the letters P B. Whoever takes up and secures said horse, so that I get him again, or delivers him to Mr. RICHARD ROSS, in Bladensburgh, shall have the above reward, and all reasonable charges.

BENJAMIN J. BRICE.

N. B. The above horse was very low in flesh.

August 7, 1794. 2

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living in Prince-George's county, near Upper-Marlborough, on Tuesday the 22d of July, a negro man named NED, of a very black complexion, twenty-eight years of age, about five feet ten or eleven inches high, he has lost two of his upper fore teeth; had on and took with him a striped coloured broad cloth coat, a pair of green cotton trousers, a pair of green breeches, a white cotton jacket, a white linen shirt, and many other cloaths not sufficiently known to be described. Whoever apprehends the said fellow and secures him, so that I get him again, shall receive a reward of TEN DOLLARS, and if the distance exceeds twenty miles TWENTY DOLLARS, and all reasonable expences, if brought home.

2 EDWARD HENRY CALVERT.

RAN AWAY from the subscribers, two sailors, viz. JAMES HALL and JAMES GUY, their names we suppose they will alter. JAMES HALL is a mulatto, about five feet nine inches high, between twenty-five and thirty years of age, with a short full suit of hair, a scar on the right cheek, a gap in the under fore teeth, and shinners much worn, inclined to lameness. JAMES GUY, a brown mulatto, about five feet ten inches high, between twenty and twenty-five years of age, very straight and well formed, has likewise an impediment in speech, when surprised. They had both of them a variety of cloaths. Whoever will secure, in any gaol, the above felons, so that we get them, shall receive the sum of TWENTY DOLLARS for each.
