MANNING - SHAW

FROM PURCHASE UNTO ETERNITY YOUR HOME WILL BE YOUR CASTLE IF YOU KNOW HOW TO TREAT IT - ALL ABOUT IT - AS A RESULT THEREOF, YOUR HOME AND ITS ENVIRONMENT WILL BE IMPROVED.

QUESTION: HOW CAN I BE CERTAIN THAT THE PRICE I AM PAYING FOR A HOUSE IS NOT TOO HIGH?

Answer: Insist upon Federal Housing Adminstration or Veterans Administration Property Appraisal. This type of appraisal generally allows the buyer the assurance that the property you are buying is in line with other property that is similiar to your potential purchase. Also, you may call upon a qualified real estate appraiser to appraise your property for a fee of approximately $30.00. You will find these appraisers listed in the yellow pages. It is safe to sign a contract to purchase a property at any price agreed upon between you and the seller of the property, but if you wish you may have the following clause inserted in the contract of sale - "This contract shall become null and void in the event a qualified appraiser of my choice fails to appraise this house for the price agreed upon.

We will give you any further information you may need if you will drop us a card in the mail with your name and address concerning any questions on real estate.
