GARR — A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of our mother, WYSELDA, who passed away June 18, 1956:
Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain;
To have, to love and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many days
But this they wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
HER LOVING CHILDREN—

COLE — A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of our dear mother, ELIZABETH, who passed away May 7, 1953:
God made lots of beautiful things;
Sunset and roses, and trees,
Birds, and starlight and loyal friends.
And, after He made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare,
More loving and more true,
Of all God's gifts, the one most fair,
A mother as dear as you.
CHILDREN

FLORENCE C. MOORE,
WALTER COLE

CONWAY — A Mother's Day Tribute to our mother, ETHEL, who passed away April 24, 1960:
Do not ask if we miss her,
There's such a vacant place,
Oh we think we hear her footsteps
And see her smiling face.
Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears in silence often flow;
Memory keeps her ever near us,
Though she left us seven years ago.
LOVING CHILDREN—

If you could just be here with me.
Or I could be there with you,
And we could chat of this and that
And the things we used to do.
Wouldn't it be wonderful,
Wouldn't the world seem gay
And wouldn't it be grand to be
Together, this Mother's Day?
The whole carnation that I wear
Is just a part of the respect,
I have for you dear mother,
And I never will forget.
For you were mine and I remember
The trials you pulled me thru,
The white carnation that I wear
Dear Mother, is my love for you.

and SON-IN-LAW
CECELIA, LIA J. and
JOSEPH H. CHICHESTER

MOAN — A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of my wife and our mother, EMMA, who passed away June 8, 1962:
If you could just be here with me,
Or I could be there with you,
And we could chat of this and that
And the things we used to do.
Wouldn't it be wonderful,
Wouldn't the world seem gay
And wouldn't it be grand to be
Together, this Mother's Day?
HUSBAND —
JOSEPH W. MOAN
CHILDREN —
ROSALEE BRIDGE,
WALTER J. MOAN
THEOPHILUS MOAN

NESBIT — Mother's Day Tribute in memory of our mother, MARIE, who passed away December 22, 1958:
Mother's Day brings back memories
Of wonderful times we knew,
A Family Day together
For then dear, we had you.
And all these recollections
Of the happy days long gone,
Bring sadness and a heartache
As Mother's Day morning dawns.
CHILDREN — ANNIE,
MAUDE, ELLA, ESTELLA

KYLER — A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of our mother, GERTRUDE, who passed away December 1, 1946:
A tribute of everlasting love
For all that you have done.
We know that God has given you
The rest that you have won.
DEVOTED DAUGHTER
and SONS

KEY — In honor of our mother, CLACY, who passed away January 22, 1961:
Today is Mother's Day, dear mother,
A present we always did give
But God has taken you far away
In a much better place to live.
You were such a wonderful mother.
So kind, unselfish and true;
Our greatest possession, dear mother,
Was no one — other than you.
DAUGHTERS —
BERTHA FISHER
and GRANDCHILDREN

SCOTT — A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of my mother, CLAUDIA BRIDGE, who passed away October 22, 1962:
What is home without a mother?
All things this world may send,
But when I lost my darling mother,
I lost my dearest friend.
DAUGHTER,
MRS. EVELYN FLEMING
and FAMILY

SCOTT — A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of our mother, ETHEL, who passed away March 22, 1961:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb
He gently closed her loving eyes
And whispered "Peace be Thine."
Her weary hours, her days of pain,
Her weary nights are passed;
Her ever patient, worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
THE SCOTT FAMILY

SEPHUS — A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of my mother and my wife, ALICE MAY, who passed away April 4, 1960:
If you could just be here with me,
Or I could be there with you,
And we could chat of this and that
And the things we used to do.
Wouldn't it be wonderful,
Wouldn't the world seem gay
And wouldn't it be grand to be
Together, this Mother's Day?
HUSBAND —
JOSEPH W. MOAN
CHILDREN —

LUCY, ETHEL, BERTHA,
RUTH and ERNEST

SMALLWOOD — A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of our mother, ROSA, who passed away August 27, 1962:
Dear Mother, on this Mother's Day,
What words can we impart
That would tell the true devotion
We have within our hearts?
No words can tell our love's message
But this we know is true;
There's no one like a mother,
No mother quite like you.
YOUR DEVOTED CHILDREN

MATTHEWS — A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of our mother, ELIZABETH, who passed away April 9, 1962:
What is home without a mother?
All things this world may send,
But when I lost my darling mother,
I lost my dearest friend.

and ELEANOR MATTHEWS

MEEKINS — A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of my mother, IRENE, who passed away September 7, 1962:
On Mother's Day the world becomes
The prettiest kind of place.
And thoughts of you enrich each hour
To give it added grace.
The flowers I place upon your grave
The clouds against the blue.
Seem brighter than they were before
Because I'm forever thinking of you.
LOVING DAUGHTER —
DOROTHY WIGGINS
and GRANDCHILDREN

MOAN — A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of our mother, EMMA, who passed away June 8, 1962:

MCGLOTTEN—A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of our mother, BEULAH BROOKS, who departed this life on May 4, 1961:
Today our hearts are heavy,
Our tears are all of them.
Oh! How we miss you dear mother,
None but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But it isn't true,
For twenty - nine years have passed
And our hearts still ache for you.

MCNEE — A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of our mother and grandmother, VELMA, who passed away August 2, 1963:
Dear Mother, on this Mother's Day,
Mom, dear
Remembrance sheds another tear
As etched upon love's window pane
I see your smiling face again.
My heart's great yearn finds no relief
Yet hope is not beyond belief.
That we will clasp each other's hand
Somewhere, sometime — we'll understand.

MOTHER'S DAY

ROSES FOR MRS. QUILLE: Mother's Day has come again. Some hearts are gay; some filled with pain.
We went to visit Mrs. Quille — Who resides in peace on Arbutus Hill
She did not hear us at the gate. We even rushed — we were not late.
She could not see our tear drops fall.
She could not answer to our call.
But we know — she knows we come to say
Here are your roses on Mother's Day —
By VICTORINE QUILLE
