No. 7875. Equity.

attempt in any way whatever to comply with the terms of sale, and refused to sign the certificate of purchase for said property.

6. That your Trustee considered several offers made to him at private sale, and after diligent effort upon the part of your Trustee to get a purchaser for said property, he secured an offer from Jesse H. Starr of Frederick County, Maryland of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) the best and highest offer he could secure, and he therefore sold the same at private sale to said Jesse H. Starr at and for the sum of Three Hundred dollars, and upon the terms of sale prescribed by the decree and set forth in the advertisement of sale, which sum he believes to be a fair price for the property.

7. And the said purchaser has signed the Memorandum of purchase and desires to pay cash for said property, upon the ratification of said sale by your Honorable Court.

8. And said Reno S. Harp, Trustee, reports the gross amount of sales to be Three Hundred dollars ($300.00)

Reno S. Harp
