Q. What do you know about Harriet Trundle, daughter of John L. Trundle?

A. She married a man named Browne: I think she is dead years ago.

Q. Do you know the names of her children or other descendants or wether she left any?

A. I do not.

Q. Do you know wether she left a will?

A. I do not, she went to the West somewhere - Illinois, I think.

Q. Did any of these seven children of John L. Trundle leave husbands or wives now surviving?

A. No: all dead, long ago.

Q. What do you know about the testacy or intestacy of the persons whom you have mentioned as being dead?

A. So far as I know none of them left wills.

Q. What Character of land is this?

A. Wild Mountain Land with some timber on it.

Q. Is it tillable?

A. No Sir.

Q. When you first knew this land, was your mother in possession and ownership of it?-

A. Yes Sir.

Q. What if any use was made of it?

A. Just as you would use a mountain lot of that kind. Cut wood from it and make rails and things like that.

Q After your mother's death who had possession of it?

A. Her heirs, including myself.

Q. Did your Mother Claim to own the lot?-

A. Oh, Yes she claimed to own it, and was in possession of it.

Q. How about her heirs after her death?

A. We were in possession of it, and claimed to own it absolutely.

Q. And when you Conveyed it to Warner and others as you have stated, did you undertake and claim to be able to Convey it absolutely?
