Howard Park students to entertain patients

MS. JACKQUELINE FLEMMING

The Special Education classes at Howard Park Elementary School have been invited back by President Hospital to present its Easter program to the pediatric department.

The classes presented similar programs last Christmas and were highly praised.

They are under the leadership of Ms. Jackqueline A. Flemming who is a hospital volunteer and auxiliary life member. Ms. Flemming has been capped and received her certificate of appreciation for volunteer services to the Provident Hospital.

Ms. Nettie Ament, primary teacher for special education, will direct the April program.

Public housing exhibition

An historical and antique exhibits featuring a doll show opens March 25 through April 16 at the Wyman House, 123 W. 29th St.

Opening ceremony starts at 2 p.m. with Mayor Schaefer and Housing Commissioner Robert Embry in attendance.

The Bicentennial theme: "Public Housing, yesterday, today and tomomorrow," will highlight the affair aimed at promoting family pride, forge the spirit of patriotism, and to encourage leadership in a meaningful way among public housing tenants.

• • •

The exhibits include letters, documents, and pictures of and belonging to public housing tenants and staff.

BARC steps up training program for area colleges

The Baltimore Association for Retarded Citizens has increased its training program for students at nearby colleges who offer courses in special education and psychology, Alyce Reiter, BARC president, has announced.

The BARC training program allows students to receive full credit for field training and enables them to get practical experience not found at on-campus sites.

• • •

To date, students from Loyola College, Coppin State, Towson State, Community College of Baltimore, Morgan State College, University of Maryland School of Nursing, Dundalk and Catonsville have participated in this program.

Coordinating the program is Fred D. Reese, Ph.D., consulting psychologist on the BARC staff. Dr. Reese, in expanding this service, has been meeting with the various college faculties arranging for student training programs.

Blind confab opens here

More than 100 blind persons from throughout the Middle Atlantic Region will assemble in Baltimore this weekend to discuss problems faced by the blind in getting their story told by the media.

The conference will begin at the Lord Baltimore Hotel Friday evening at 6 p.m. and last until Sunday noon.

THE MTA MONTHLY BUY PASS

CATCH AN MTA MONTHLY PASS AND SCORE WITH BIG SAVINGS. NOW, A NEW CONVENIENT AND ECONOMICAL WAY FOR YOU TO RIDE MTA BUSES.

SPECIAL INTRODUCTORY OFFER! Beginning March 22, you can buy your April pass, and use it for the rest of March and all of April. (This introductory offer is good only for April passes. It does not apply to subsequent months.)

WHAT IS A MONTHLY PASS? The MTA Monthly Pass is good only for travel within Zone 1 or to and from Zone 1. It will enable you to ride MTA buses as often as you wish. Any time. Any day. From the 1st of the month through the last day of the month. Within the zone limits of the pass you purchase, you can travel an unlimited amount of rides for just one flat monthly fee. You'll find it super handy and convenient because you'll never again need exact change or tokens within the zone limits of the pass you buy.

WHICH PASS SHOULD I BUY? FIRST — Determine in which zone you live. If you need help, consult the MTA brochure "TO EACH HIS ZONE." It's available at all MTA facilities and monthly pass sales centers. Then determine in which zone you work or travel to regularly. Now, go to any of the convenient monthly pass sales centers and purchase the appropriate pass.

For example:
• If you live/work in zone 1 and live/work or travel regularly in zone 1, then you should buy a zone 1 monthly pass.
• If you live/work in zone 3 and live/work or travel regularly in zone 1, then you should buy a zone 3 monthly pass.
• If you live/work in zone 1 and live/work or travel regularly to zone 4, then you should buy a zone 4 monthly pass.
• If you live/work in zone 3 and live/work or travel regularly to zone 3, AND TRAVEL THROUGH ZONE 1, then you should buy a zone 3 pass.

You'll find that there are two types of passes available to you. One pass is for use on Premium service, such as limited service, express service or premium express. This pass is marked with an "X" after the zone number. The other type of pass is for use on Regular type service. It doesn't have an "X" after the zone number.

For example: If you buy a zone 3 premium monthly pass, your pass will be marked with a large 3X on it. If you buy a zone 3 regular monthly pass, your pass will just have a "3" on it.

Within the zone limits of your pass you can use any "X" marked pass on regular service buses. But... you CANNOT USE a pass WITHOUT an "X" on Premium Service buses... unless you pay an extra
5¢ for limited service
10¢ for express service
15¢ for premium express

WHO SHOULD BUY A MONTHLY PASS? If you are a regular rider to and from zone 1, and you spend more per month for MTA services then is indicated on the "MONTHLY PASS CHART," then the MTA Monthly Pass is for YOU. Or if you spend less than indicated on the chart, but just want the convenience of a monthly pass, it may be for you, too. However you travel, the MTA Monthly Pass could mean substantial savings.

HOW MUCH WILL MY MONTHLY PASS COST? This chart will show you how much a monthly pass will cost, but more importantly, it will show you how much you can save.

THE MTA MONTHLY PASS: WHAT IT COSTS...WHAT IT SAVES

REGULAR PASS (WITHOUT X)

Zone	Cost of Pass	Without Pass Cash Fare Would Be	With Pass You Save
1	$14.00	$16.80	$2.80
2	17.50	21.00	3.50
3	21.00	25.20	4.20
4	24.50	29.40	4.90
5	28.00	33.60	5.60
6	31.50	37.80	6.30
7	35.00	42.00	7.00
8	38.50	46.20	7.70
9	42.00	50.40	8.40
10	45.50	54.60	9.10

The above cash fare figures are based upon 2 (two) peak hour trips per day for 21 (twenty-one) weekdays per month.
For example: If you ride regular service buses from Zone 3 to Zone 1 every week day, your cost per month is $25.20. If you buy a Zone 3 regular monthly pass, your cost per month is $21.00. That is a savings of $4.20 per month!
AND THE MORE YOU RIDE, THE MORE YOU SAVE.

PREMIUM PASS (MARKED X)

Cost of Pass	Without Pass Cash Fares Would Be: Limited Express	Express Service	Super Premium	You Save From
$17.50	$18.90	$21.00	$23.10	$1.40-5.60
21.00	23.10	25.20	27.30	2.10-6.30
24.50	27.30	29.40	31.50	2.80-7.00
28.00	31.50	33.60	35.70	3.50-7.70
31.50	35.70	37.80	39.90	4.20-8.40
35.00	39.90	42.00	44.10	4.90-9.10
38.50	44.10	46.20	48.30	5.60-9.80
42.00	48.30	50.40	52.50	6.30-10.50
45.50	52.50	54.60	56.70	7.00-11.20
49.00	56.70	58.80	60.90	7.70-11.90

The above cash fare figures are based upon 2 (two) peak hour trips per day for 21 (twenty-one) weekdays per month.
For example: If you ride premium service buses from Zone 3 to Zone 1 every week day, your cost per month for limited express is $27.30, for express service it is $29.40 and for premium express service it is $31.50. If you buy a Zone 3 premium monthly pass, your cost is $24.50. That is a savings from $2.80 to $7.00 per month depending on the kind of premium service you use.
AND THE MORE YOU RIDE, THE MORE YOU SAVE.

HOW DO I USE MY MTA MONTHLY PASS? It's really quite simple! First of all, be sure to read the information on the pass, print your name on the front, and sign your name on the back. That's it. Then when you board your bus, simply show it to the operator and ENJOY YOUR RIDE.

WHAT IF I TRAVEL BEYOND THE ZONE INDICATED ON MY PASS? INBOUND If you have, for example, a zone 3 pass and you board the bus in zone 4, for any reason, the operator will charge you an extra 10¢ for riding that extra zone.

Remember... you will be charged an extra 10¢ for each zone you travel until you reach the zone for which your pass is valid.

OUTBOUND If you have, for example, a zone 3 pass and for any reason you travel to zone 4, the operator will charge you an extra 10¢ for riding that extra zone.

Remember... you will be charged an extra 10¢ for each zone you travel past the zone for which your pass is valid.

WHAT ELSE SHOULD I KNOW ABOUT THE MTA MONTHLY PASS?
• The monthly pass is NOT transferrable or redeemable.
• It expires at midnight on the last day of the month indicated on the pass.
• No discount will be given to persons purchasing passes after the first day of the month.
• Passes will not be replaced for any reason.
• Transfers are not required.
• Monthly passes sold at MTA facilities will only be sold on a cash basis.
• Monthly passes cannot be used for Stadium Specials, Pony Expresses or any other non-regular route scheduled service.
