Casper E. Cline, Jr., trading as C. E. Cline and Son	:
vs	:	No. 13,935 Equity
Annie V. Stultz and William Stultz, her husband, Lillie I. Keefer, widow, Harry Smith, unmarried and Oliver H. Keefer, Administrator of the Estate of Joseph E. B. Smith, deceased.	:	In the Circuit Court for Frederick County, sitting as a Court of Equity.

The Petition of Casper E. Cline, Jr., trading as C. E. Cline and Son, Complainant in the above entitled cause respectfully shows unto your Honors:

FIRST: That on June 9, 1939 your Petitioner filed his Bill of Complaint in this cause entitled, Casper E. Cline, Jr., trading as C. E. Cline and Son, vs., Annie V. Stultz and William Stultz, her husband, Lillie I. Keefer, widow, Harry Smith, unmarried and Oliver H. Keefer, Administrator of the Estate of Joseph E. B. Smith, deceased.

SECOND: That all the respondents in this cause filed their answers consenting to the relief prayed on June 12, 1939.

THIRD: That it appears fromthe answer filed by Annie V. Stultz and Thomas O. Stultz, respondents in this cause, filed on June 12, 1939, the name of one of the Respondents in this cause, to wit, Thomas O. Stultz, commonly known as William Stultz, was inadvertently stated as William Stultz, when in point of fact the true and correct name of the Respondent against whom the relief is prayed in this cause, is Thomas O. Stultz and not William Stultz.

Wherefore your Petitioner prays that your Honors will pass an Order of your Honorable Court, Nun Pro Tunc to take effect as of the date of the filing of the Bill of Complaint in this cause, to wit, June 9, 1939, granting your Petitioner leave to amend the titling of said Bill of Complaint so that the names of the Respodents will be correctly stated therein.

And that your Petitioner may have such other and further relief as the case may require.
