MOTHER'S DAY MAY 11TH

Mother's Day is one of the most celebrated traditions on the American calendar of events. Across the nation, sons and daughters of all ages will remember "MOM".

The Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN on Friday, May 9th will help you honor your deceased Mother with a special "Mother's Day Page".

With this thought in mind, we are taking this opportunity to suggest the publication of one of the following verses or any similar poem ofyour choice. Pictures may be used at a small additional cost, (black & white preferred).

Fill in the information below and return it TODAY or call 728-8200 Monday through Friday.

The deadline for this special "Mother's Day Page" is April 29th.

MOTHER'S DAY VERSES

1-M
Today is Mother's Day, dear mother,
A present we always did give
But God has taken you far away
In a much better place to live.
You were such a wonderful mother,
So kind, unselfish and true.
Our proudest possession, dear mother,
Was no one — other than you.

2-M
The white carnation that I wear
Is just a part of the respect,
I have for you dear mother,
And I never will forget.
For you were mine and I remember
The trials you pulled me thru.
The white carnation that I wear
Dear Mother, is my love for you.

3-M
On this Mother's Day, Mom, dear,
Remembrance sheds another tear
As etched upon love's window pane
I see your smiling face again.
My heart's great years finds no relief
Yet hope is not beyond belief,
That we will clasp each other's hand
Somewhere, sometime — we'll understand.

4-M
On Mother's Day, the world becomes
The prettiest kind of place.
And thoughts of you enrich each hour
To give it added grace.
The flowers I place upon your grave
The clouds against the blue.
Seem brighter than they were before
Because I'm forever thinking of you.

5-M
A tribute of everlasting love
For all that you have done.
We know that God has given you
The rest that you have won.

6-M
If you could just be here with me.
Or I could be there with you,
And we could chat of this and that
And the things we used to do.
Wouldn't it be wonderful,
Wouldn't the world seem gay
And wouldn't it be grand to be
Together, this Mother's Day.

7-M
Mother's Day brings back memories
Of wonderful times we knew.
A family Day together
For then dear, we had you.
And all those recollections
Of the happy days long gone,
Bring sadness and a heartache
As Mother's Day morning dawns.

8-M
What is home without a mother?
All things this world may send.
But when I lost my darling mother,
I lost my dearest friend.

9-M
In all the world there is no other,
To take the place of our precious mother.
The first love, we know;
The last we forget.
The love of Mother, the sweetest love yet.

10-M
Dear Mother, on this Mother's Day
What words can we have spoken
That would tell the true devotion
We have within our hearts.
No words can tell love's message
But this we know is true;
There's no one like another,
No mother quite like you.
