DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This frame farmhouse is situated in a hilly semi-wooded area on Green Lantern Road approximately ¼ mile northwest of the intersection with Sam Crow Road. The house faces southeast. It is a story and-a-half, three bay by one bay main block with a two story one bay by two bay ell extending forward along the southwest elevation. A three bay shed addition runs the length of the facade of the main block to the ell. The house can be entered from this addition and from an entrance on the northeast elevation of the main block.

The house has a central brick chimney on the main block and an interior gable end brick chimney on the rear northwest elevation of the ell. The house is lit predominately with two over two sash windows with two pane windows on the half story facade of the main block. The house rests on a stone foundation. German siding, with cornerboards, covers the house. Corrugated metal covers the roof.

Numerous outbuildings including a barn, stable, summer kitchen, smokehouse, springhouse and a chicken coop are located to the south and southwest of the house.
