Exhibit B:

aforesaid, has since died, and your Complainant is sole surviving Executor of the said John Willson, and in him are vested the rights and powers of this Executorship.

And your Complainant further charges, that on or about the 8th day of December in the year 1856, the said Benjamin Kohlhaas paid one hundred and three on the principal and interest due on said single bill, but has failed to pay any more of said purchase money, and that said single bill is long over-due, and a large amount of the principal and interest is unpaid.

And your Complainant further charges that the balance of the purchase money unpaid on said single bill and the interest accrued thereon, is a lien on the land so sold to said Benjamin Kohlhaas and that he is entitled to have said land sold by your Honor for the payment of the same.

And your Complainant further charges that said Benjamin Kohlhaas departed this life on or about the 21st day of February in the year 1862, and left surviving him a widow named Mary Kohlhaas residing in Frederick County, Maryland, and the following children all of full age, namely, George W. Kohlhaas residing in Washington County, Maryland, and Alexander, Frederick, James W. and Elijah Kohlhaas, all residing out of the State of Maryland, and the jurisdiction of this Court, the said Elijah and some or all of the others supposed to be married but to whom your Complainant cannot ascertain.

To the end therefore that the said defendants hereafter named, may answer the several matters and things hereinbefore stated, as fully and particularly as if they were herein again repeated, and the said defendants were thereto specially interrogated, and that the real Estate in the proceedings mentioned may be sold for the payment of your Complainant's Claim for the lien of unpaid purchase money thereon together with the interest that may be due thereon, And that your Complainant may have such further and other relief as the nature and Equity of his case may require: May it please your Honor to grant unto your Complainant an order of publication giving notice to the said Alexander Kohlhaas, Frederick Kohlhaas, James W. Kohlhaas and Elijah Kohlhaas, who are non-residents as before stated, of the substance and object of this bill, and warning them to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor on or before a certain day, and show cause if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed; And also the usual subpoena against the said Mary Kohlhaas of Frederick County and the said George W. Kohlhaas of Washington County commanding them to appear in this Court at some certain day therein named, to answer the premises and abide by and perform such decree as may be passed therein. And as in duty &c.
