Description:

This one and a half story brick house is located on the northeast corner of West Cemetery Street and West Side Avenue. It is a three bay structure with a central entrance. Windows have six over six sash within narrow frames. A partially enclosed porch extends across the front. The house probably dates from the 1830-1850 period.

According to the 1877 Atlas map for Funkstown the place belonged to D. Iseminger at that time.
