A Well, he does not know you. He just doesn't know you at all.

Q He is 84 years of age?

A He is 84.

Q Did you visit with him prior to his admission to Springfield State Hospital while at Monocacy Nursing Home?

A Yes.

Q What did you observe about him there as to his mental condition?

A He was very incapable like my brother said. He broke up furniture and they had to tie him; keep him in a chair so he wouldn't hurt himself.

Q Your brother has testified as to his knowledge of the property that your father now owns which has been offered into evidence as exhibits. Are these the properties that you have knowledge of? Do you know of any others?

A No, I don't.

Q He has also testified as to certain assets that he has in the way of mortgages. Do you have any knowledge of any others?

A No, I don't.

Q Also, he has testified as to his approximate income being $510. a month and, of course, plus any interest that might accumulate on savings accounts. Do you have any knowledge of any other assets?

A No, I don't.

Q Will you state whether or not you believe it would be to the best interest and advantage to your father's estate that a committee or trustee be appointed tomanage his property and affairs?

A Yes.

Q Who do you recommend to be named as the Committee or Trustee? Would you be satisfied with the Bank?

A Yes, I am satisfied with the Bank.

Q You feel they would be in a better position then you or your brother?

A Yes, that's right.

Offutt: That is all.

A My niece is 23 years old - Yvonne.

Q You know of no disagreement between any of your brothers?

A No, I don't.
