Description:

The Robert Duvall House is a 1½-story, 3-bay cottage on the south side of Spencerville Road in the Burtonsville vicinity, Montgomery County. Constructed circa 1920, the building has a side-gable, asphalt shingle roof with shed roof dormers on both the north and south elevations. The house is stuccoed and has an exterior brick chimney on the west facade. There is aluminum siding in the gable ends and on the shed dormers, and the windows are double-hung wood sash. The house has a front-gable hood over the front entrance and decorative brackets embellish the eaves of the main roof and door hood.

There are no outbuildings associated with this building.

The property is located on the south side of Spencerville Road, with residential property to the north, east, and west and open space to the south. The property's setting is suburban.
