That a Certain Enoch Connelly of Pipe Creek in Prince Georges County together with John Reynolds late of Annapolis Barber in the Year Seventeen hundred and thirty five were bound by Recognizance in fifty Pounds Current Money each for the said Connelly's appear at the then next Provincial Court. But so it happened may it please your Excellency that the said Connelly by lending his Horses to a Neighbour to Remove near the time when he should have made his appearance, the Person carried off the horses and did not return them whereby he neglected to appear (the distance being near Seventy miles from the Provincial Court for want of a Horse he being an Ancient man) so that the Recognizance became forfeit; That the said Connelly Mortgaged One hundred acres of Land as a Security to the said Reynolds who became bound with him whose Widow or the Person that married her keeps the Mortgage and threatens to Sell the Land under Pretence of suffering by the Recognizance, But as the said Reynolds nor his Representatives have suffered the Recognizance not having been Threated Your Petitioner most humbly Prays your Excellency out of your known Goodness & Clemency will be pleased to Remit the forfeiture of the Recognizance afs. he being a very poor Man and having nothing but the 100 Acres of Land afs. to depend upon (which is greatly Incumbered by means of the entering into the Recognizance as afs.) to maintain his Wife and family. And he as in duty bound will pray &c.
