Week days	Mo. days	Wind	Place of the Ship at Noon	Remarks & Occurrences	Signals A.M.	Signals P.M.	Signals	By what Ship	To what Ship
December		1814		A. M. Cold frosty weather Boats with Troops, Provisions Ammunition & Guns arriving Employed sending them up the Canal in Canoes &c The Enemys Schooner firing occasionally - A Ship dropped down the River - Artillery & Seamen attached to them employed in the night throwing up a Battery opposite the Schooner and transporting the Guns to it &c Major Generals Sir Edward Pakenham & Gibbs and Colonels Dixon of the Artillery and Burgoyne of the Engineers with their respective Staffs arrived
Sunday	25th	North					On Shore with the Army
Monday	26th	North		A. M. Cold frosty weather - Boats arriving with Troops Ammunition Provisions &c The Enemys Schooner fired occasionally Parties employed repairing the Roads, clearing Canals of Trees &c and transporting Ammunition and Provisions up the Canal Billiere in small Boats -			On Shore with the Army
Tuesday	27th	North		A. M. Cold frosty weather At Daylight the Battery which had been erected opposite the Schooner opened on her with red hot shot with such effect as almost immediately set her on fire, and at 9 O'clock she blew up - The Ship instantly got under weigh - and having a fair wind got beyond the reach of our Guns. Boats arriving with Ships 18 pounder Guns & Troops - Ammunition & Provisions &c Seamen transporting do up the Canal in Boats			On Shore with the Army
Wednesday	28th	North		A. M. Cold frosty weather At Daylight the Army advanced on the Enemys Picquets - Ship in the River opened a heavy fire on our Troops - Enemys Batteries kept up a constant Fire - Boats with Troops & heavy Guns arriving - Transporting do up the Canal			On Shore with the Army		