Miscellaneous Poetry.

THE PRINTER-FIEND.

The night was dark—and not a star
Peeped through the gathering gloom;
And silence brooded o'er the type
In the composing room.

The printers had to supper gone,
And vacant were their places,
When through the door a villain crept,
And stole Dick Johnson's spaces!

O, foulest wrong beneath the sun!
O, deepest of disgraces!
The darkest crime that can be done
Is that of stealing spaces.

When the forgiving angel's pen
All other sin erases,
Albeit, unbucked, shall still remain
The sin of stealing spaces.

Dick went to "lunch," and left his case
Filled—running o'er—with letter,
And thought he would return again
When copy should get fatter.

When he came back he took his place
Again before his cases—
You should have seen his attitude
When he beheld his spaces!

It was no time for charity,
Or other Christian graces;
He wildly cried—"I'll dot the eyes
Of him who stole my spaces!"

The Fiend still lives and walks the earth,
And so must walk forever!
He cannot die—a wretch like him—
For rest awaits him never!

And printers, for long years to come,
Will trouble at their cases,
Well knowing that his spirit still
Is fond of stealing spaces!

An Important Letter

From Rev. JACOB SECRIST, well known and highly respected throughout the state of Pennsylvania:

HANOVER, Pa., February 10, 1859.
Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston.—I feel bound in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—and deem it my duty to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters was ill to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle, there was a great improvement in her health. I have in my individual capacity made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it. [illegible] I am, respectfully yours, JACOB SECRIST.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and Oxygenated Bitters, are prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, Mass.

HAGERSTOWN ADVERTISEMENTS.

GEISER'S
PATENT SELF-REGULATING
GRAIN SEPARATOR,
CLEANER AND BAGGER,
AND THE LATEST IMPROVED
Iron Tripple-Geared
HORSE-POWER,
All furnished Complete, if desired, on Four Wheels.

THE subscribers desire to call the attention of the Farmers and Thrashermen of Montgomery and adjoining counties to their Improved Machine for the present year. This machine has now been before the public for six years, during which time it has earned for itself the reputation of being the best Separator in use; and we have made some very important improvements and additions for the present year, which render it still more perfect, and we take pleasure in recommending it to the public, knowing that it cannot fail to give general satisfaction. We are now manufacturing two different sizes, as follows:

No. 1, the largest size, is 6-horse power, 28-inch Iron Cylinder, Trunk 37½ inches wide, with Stacker, delivering the straw 30 feet beyond the feeder and upon the stack 16 feet high, and can be easily managed either to carry the chaff with the straw, or deliver it in a separate place if required. It bags the grain, by reasonable management, sufficiently clean for market, and its capacity, under ordinary circumstances, is from 20 to 40 bushels per hour, or from 200 to 500 bushels per day, using eight horses and the same number of hands; but to force the work, under the most favorable circumstances, it will do considerably more, or, with the same number of horses and less hands, it will thrash and clean as much or more grain per day than any other machine in use, and with much less exertion to the hands.

No. 2 is the same as No. 1, except something less in size and capacity; it is from 5 to 6-horse power, 26-inch Iron Cylinder, Trunk 31 inches wide.

Persons having good Thrashers, can have Separators suitable to their capacity, attached, at a comparatively small cost. All our machines are sold under a warranty.

We being practical mechanics, and being engaged in the manufacture of these machines for the last five years, and one of us having the advantage of twenty years' practical experience in the threshing machine business, and having in our employ the most skillful workmen, and using the best material, we flatter ourselves that we are now prepared to manufacture these celebrated machines in the most substantial manner.

REPAIRING done in workmanlike manner. All our work warranted to give satisfaction, or no sale. Orders respectfully solicited.

Attention, Farmers!

THE SUBSCRIBER, of Middletown, Frederick county, Md., offers to the public one of the largest assortment and most approved styles of—

SADDLES, BRIDLES, HARNESS, COLLARS, WHIPS, BROAD GEAR, &c.

I will also MAKE TO ORDER any article in my line of business at the shortest notice, and deliver it to any part of the State, free of charge, and if not as ordered, no sale.

As I do not expect any one to take what does not suit them, so persons in want of any thing in my line of business will do well to give me a call before purchasing, as I have never failed to please any reasonable man, and am determined to sell cheaper than the same articles can be bought for any where in the State. Don't forget the place, sign of the Big Boot, Middletown, Md.

All persons who advertise that they have the best article and sell the cheapest, but all we ask is a trial for one and all.
