And for sale, by Messrs. Warner & Hanna, and Mr. Samuel Butler,

PENDLETON'S MEDICAL ALPHABET.

This is a concise view of the fundamental principles of the Medical science, in which the inconsistencies, noticed by opponents to the popular system, are explained away by a judicious modification of the theory. The works of Dr. Darwin and Dr. Brown, author of Elements Medicina) are frequently mentioned, and sometimes opposed: but it is presumed, that however the opinions of Dr. P. may be appreciated by the Medical world, the genius and ingenuity displayed in his little pamphlet, cannot fail to command their admiration.

GENERAL COMPLAINTS.

AS Dr. WARNER's practice has been so very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the general diseases, in reference to any medicine resided or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most [illegible] cases with ease and dispatch, after [illegible] some of the ablest physicians both [illegible] and America. Complaints of the [illegible] nature; and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.

—As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.

Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicine so prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.

N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Bond-street, to Cumberland Row, No. 14, below the North-market.
