To be Let for one or more years,
[illegible]
ENLOES'S POINT, a [illegible] plantation of about 400 acres, [illegible] the lower end of [illegible] from Baltimore about twelve miles. [illegible] half the land is cleared, and in order for cultivation, and well adapted to [illegible] and grass, and all kinds of market truck. The place as near the city possesses greater advantages [illegible] the water, in fish and fowl, in the proper seasons. More than the amount of the annual rent I demand, has been made from it in 3 weeks at the market from the sale of large rock fish, immediately after the breaking up of the ice—There is an old apple and peach orchard on it—To a tenant well recommended as being more likely to improve than impoverish the land, the terms will be made easy, and every reasonable encouragement given. DANIEL BOWLY.

Sterling Plate.
Charles L. Boehme,
No 126, MARKET-STREET BALTIMORE,
CONTINUES to manufacture his goods of sterling silver at nearly one third less price than that which is imported. He has now in his employ several of the best workmen, some of whom have worked in the first manufactories in London, which enables him to have his work executed in the neatest and most masterly manner. From the moderate price, the elegance of his work, and the superior quality of his silver to that generally manufactured in America, he flatters himself he will secure a preference. He has just received an elegant assortment of London jewelry, consisting of gold ear-rings and necklaces of various patterns, do. bread, pins and broaches, lockets, bracelets and finger rings, and from former importations, plated candle sticks, brackets, castors, snuffers and trays, Japanned coasters, urns and castors, silver and plated spectacles, silver butter and cheese knives, silver coral & bells. He has also for sale of his own manufacturing, coffee and tea pots, sugar dishes, slop basons and cream ewers in sets. Also, soup table dessert, tea spoons and sugar tongs, all of which will match.
He carries on the Clock and Watch making as usual, and has also received an assortment of gold and silver watches plain capped and capped and jeweled all of which are warranted. Also gentlemen and ladies' watch chains, seals and keys of the newest patterns. Clocks or watches which he may be interested with to repair will be carefully executed at the shortest notice and warrented to perform well. The above will be sold at moderate prices for cash or acceptances in town at short dates.
Wanted two journeymen Silver Smith Plate Workers. Also, two or three lads about fifteen or sixteen years of age and of good connections, will be taken as apprentices.
