Forty Dollars Reward.

LEFT the subscriber's, on Easter Sunday, a negro man named JACOB, 36 years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches high, of a light complexion, stout and well built. The only distinguishable marks which I can now recollect, are the loss of a fore tooth, a tolerable wide mouth, wearing upon his countenance a general, but simple smile. Had on when he went away, a pair of cloth overalls, of a drab colour, a round jacket of the same a pair of white yarn stockings, and a felt hat; all of which were nearly new. The night of his departure, he was seen crossing the Patuxent, at the Governor's bridge, on his way, as he said, to see his father, then at major Brogden's, in Anne Arundel; since then, I have heard nothing of him. He is unhappily attached to spirituous liquor. Whoever shall apprehend the said negro and secure him, so that I may get him again, shall receive the above reward. OSBORN SPRIG,

THE Managers of this Lottery flatter themselves, from the elevated and healthy situation chosen by the Commissioners appointed for fixing the Market-house, that it will be of the greatest utility and advantage, to that part of the city, and to the country in general; and beg leave to recommend it as an object worthy of their encouragement.

As the above Scheme offers every possible encouragement to adventurers, from the many valuable Prizes it contains, and there being considerably less than two Blanks to a Prize, and all Prizes payable in 60 days after the drawing of the Lottery is completed without any deduction, the Managers entertain the greatest hopes of such a speedy sale of the Tickets, as may enable them to commence drawing without loss of time.

Such Prizes as shall not be demanded within six months after the drawing is finished, will be considered as relinquished for the benefit of the Market house.

For the satisfaction of the public, it may not be unnecessary to inform them, that the Managers have given bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of 30,000 dollars, for the due performance of the trust.

Grand Panorama,

OF THE BATTLE OF ALEXANDRIA, IN EGYPT,

IS NOW OPEN D

In Still-house street, between Peters's bridge and George Smith's, in a newly erected building, where it will remain but a short time.

This animated PAINTING has been the admiration of the metropolis of England and Ireland; and has received unbounded eclat from the inhabitants of New York and Philadelphia. It is executed by that celebrated young artist, Robert Ker Porter, upon the same grand scale as the STORMING of SERINGAPATAM, comprehending 3600 square feet of canvas and introducing in the various groups which occupy the fore ground, above 90 portraits of British officers.

☞ The place of exhibition will be open every day from eight o'clock till dark. Admittance fifty cents.

As a companion to the painting, may be had at the above place (neatly printed in Octavo size, price twenty five cents) a correct account of the battle of Alexandria, with a sketch of the campaign in Egypt, under sir Ralph Abercrombie.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

STOLEN on Monday morning last, between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock in the stable of the subscribers, at Woodbury Mills, on Jones's Falls about four miles from Baltimore a Waggon HORSE. He is a grey Gelding, about 4 years old, in high order, about 15 or 15½ hands high. He is a well turned horse, but not a good hack; trots rough, has a tolerable long switch tail, and his head more white than his body. The villain who stole him was seen this morning about day light, near Beans's tavern, on the Reister's town turnpike road, in company with a black man on a black horse; he then had the hand to ride on the Horse, about half worn, which he took from the stable with the horse, and was riding on a blanket in the place of a saddle. I will give Twenty Dollars for the horse, if delivered to us in Baltimore; or Fifty Dollars for the thief and horse, upon conviction.

There is no doubt but the horse is stolen by one of the gang of jockeys who are lurking about the city, and it would be well for those who have horses, to keep a vigilant look-out for these villains, and endeavor to bring them to justice, as a number of horses have lately been stolen in or near the city.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT a Convention of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland will commence at Baltimore on the first Monday in June. The practitioners of medicine and surgery, in the state of Maryland, are respectfully invited to attend. Those who have been elected members of the faculty, will please to signify their wishes to the secretary, or some other member, that they may be admitted at the opening of the convention, and take their seats immediately. Gentlemen who are candidates for permission to practise physic and surgery, in the state of Maryland, will please to attend at the session of the convention.

By an unanimous resolution at the last meeting of the faculty, the orator appointed in 1802 to have delivered an oration in 1803 was directed to deliver the same in 1805—his position having been deemed a sufficient apology for the non performance of his duty at that time. The orator appointed for 1805, will nevertheless, be expected to deliver his oration at the convention in June.

The Censors of the counties, towns, and of the cities of Baltimore and Annapolis, are earnestly requested to report to the convention (through the secretary) the names, places of residence, and dates of the commencement of practice of all the practitioners within their respective jurisdictions. These censors will feel the necessity of such a measure, when they reflect that there are many unlicensed practitioners infringing the law, and that without the rigorous execution of their duty, it must become a dead letter.

NATH. POTTER, Sec'ry
Med and Chirurg. Fac. Maryland.

☞ The editors of the Washington Federalist, the National Intelligencer, the Frederick town Herald, and of the Star at Easton, will confer a particular favor on the faculty of physic as well as serve the interests of science and humanity, by giving the above a place in their papers two or three times previous to the first Monday in June.

His dress when he went away was a blue baize outside jacket lined with green, longer than common—a blue inside ditto half worn, a grey fearnaught pair of breeches, a coarse shirt, white yarn stockings and two pair of shoes. VENERIAL COMPLAINTS.

AS Dr. WARMER's practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vended or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages, and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time. ——As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.

Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicine so prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.

N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Bond-street, to Cumberland Row, No. 66, below the Marsh-market.
