Baltimore General Dispensary,
June 25 1805.

An Election will be held on Friday, the 28th instant, at James Bryden's, for the purpose of choosing three Physicians to attend patients for the ensuing year; two of whom must reside on the west, and the other on the east side of Harford Run. The polls will be opened at 9 o'clock, A. M. and continue open till 12 o'clock, P. M. The payment of Five Dollars, on or before that time, will be necessary to entitle a person to vote at the Election.

For the information of such indigent persons as may require the aid of the Dispensary, the managers will, in the course of a few days, cause to be made out and inserted in the different newspapers of the city, a correct list of the Contributors to this institution, to any of whom they may apply for recommendations.

By order of the board,
ANDREW ELLICOTT, Jun.
Secretary.

Charitable Marine Society of BALTIMORE.

A yearly meeting will be held on WEDNESDAY, the 26th June, at 6 o'clock in the evening, at Peck's Hotel, Fell's Point. An election for officers will then take place and the pension list for the next year exhibited; it is therefore thought necessary to impress on the members a prompt attendance, and that they come prepared to pay up the arrears, as, without a very general collection, the society will not be able to pay the many humane demands that must necessarily take place.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on the morning of the 2d inst. a negro WOMAN, named LUCY, of a very dark yellow complexion, about twenty five years old, and rather a neat figure, speaks timidly and sometimes inclining to be sulky; has a large timid eye, and frequently her jaws tied up for the tooth ache. She used to wear at home a dark blue striped linen jacket and petticoat; but having carried off all her clothes, she will likely change her dress. It is thought she is lurking about some gentleman's place in the vicinity of Baltimore, having many friends and acquaintances in the country. Any constable or other person bringing her home, shall have the above reward, and on giving information where she can be had, shall have half the amount. She was formerly the property of Mr Thomas Rutter, who sold her to Colonel Clemm, and by me purchased of him.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber on the 23d of February last a Negro lad named JIM, 19 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, square built, black brown complexion, a small scar under one of his eyes and had one on each cheek, the white of his eyes are mixed with a yellowish red, and a good countenance; he has a hurt in one of his legs which is not perceivable unless he walks brisk. His dress when he went away was a blue baize outside jacket lined with green, longer than common—a blue inside ditto half worn, a grey fearnaught pair of breeches, a coarse shirt, white yarn stockings and two pair of shoes. He is an artful villain and will change both name and dress, and will endeavor (through the means of his father who lives on Fell's Point) to pass for a free man and no doubt will enter on board some vessel as such. This is the 5th time he has run off—He ran away the 3d of January 1801, and was caught in York county, Pennsylvania, and lodged in Little York jail. If he is taken up in Maryland I will pay fifty dollars and reasonable expences if brought and delivered to me—if in any other state the above reward, and all reasonable expences on his being delivered to

Wm. STENSON.

N. B. All masters of vessels are warned no ke him away. W. S.
