NOTICE.

WHEREAS my wife, MARY CROSSMAN, has absconded from my bed and board, without any just cause, and in my absence taken away with her my household furniture, and taken up with a set of loose men and women. She has sworn her life against me for several times without any cause whatever—And by her persuasion and influence I was confined in prison four days, and since she passes for a single woman, although we have been married nearly 14 years. This is therefore to forewarn all persons from harboring or trusting her, or any of her children on my account, as I am determined to pay no debts of her or their contracting from this date.—One principal cause of separation is—her dishonest partiality for other men.

FOR apprehending and securing NEGRO ADAM, in any jail so that I get him again. He ran away on the 21st instant; he is a likely, slim and straight made lad, of a yellow black complexion, about twenty years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, has a scar on the right side of his chin which occasions a lump; he generally holds his head down when walking, rough spoken, seldom seen to smile, and scarcely ever observed to laugh, remarkably slim legs, very fond of sleeping and is a good farm hand. Had on when he went away, a long brown coat, white waistcoat, yellow nankeen pantaloons and fur hat. Perhaps he may have procured a pass.

RAN AWAY

FROM the subscriber living in Alexandria, Virginia, on the 7th of July, 1805, a negro man named LIGE; stout made; about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high; bow legged; black bushy head; green sunken eyes; very much scared with the small pox; has a scar on his right cheek bone; bad countenance; fond of bad company and strong drink. He has always been used to crafting in the Chesapeak bay, & thereby accumulated much company of his own colour and description. When spoken to he is apt to stammer; much given to lying, and lastly to stealing. He was seen from the 12th to the 18th July in various parts of Baltimore with negroes, last at Fell's-Point, looking for a birth, probably on board a craft, as he was never at sea. I will give 50 dollars if taken and put in any jail, and information given me in Alexandria, or Mr. Wm. Ball of Baltimore; if brought home all expences paid to the amount of 25 dollars, not exceeding.

He had on a straw hat, old faded bumbazett long coat, (formerly of a redish brown) new ticklenburg shirt, and black and white narrow striped linen trowsers. He is an artful villain, which art he displays under the false garb of pretended simplicity, though a good scholar and well read.
