15 Hundred Dollars Reward.

HIGH-WAY ROBBERY

YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.

The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were

1 post note of the Bank of Virginia, for 800 dols
1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500
1 do. of the same for 500
1 do. of the same for 450
1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. B. endorsed to Blank, dated 6th July, 1805, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.

A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higinbothom, cashier, in favor of Greetham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller.

There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.

As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instantly of his senses, tho' it is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature good countenance, and had a genteel appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, nankeen pantaloons, shoes, and a black hat. He was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his clothes.

Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber; and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon.

WILLIAM WHANN,
Cashier of the Bank of Columbia.

Pennsylvania House

AND

MYER'S CITY TAVERN.

THE subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's tavern, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Ways' printing-office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's book-store.——

——These houses contain twenty-six lodging rooms, with fire-places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress.

I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged: I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage.

Ten Dollars Reward,

RAN AWAY on Sunday morning the 4th instant, from the Comb Manufactory, No. 76, Baltimore-street, an indented apprentice, named JOHN M'GREGOR, aged about twenty-eight years; light brown hair, red whiskers and beard; about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high; speaks broad and not unlike the dialect of the North of Ireland, says he was born in Glasgow. He formerly hawked pamphlets, school books, &c. about on Fell's-Point and resided in Bond-street. He had on a straw hat, old faded bumbazeet long coat, (formerly of a redish brown) new ticklenburg shirt, and black and white narrow striped linen trowsers. He is an artful villain, which art he displays under the false garb of pretended simplicity, though a good scholar and well read. Five dollars will be paid if taken in the city and lodged in jail, or the above reward if taken elsewhere, and all expences paid by

ELOPED

FROM the subscriber on the evening of the 26th July, a bright mulatto man, named PERRY BENTLY, aged about 30 years, but in appearance not more than two or three and twenty; he is a straight made handsome fellow, about 5 feet 10 inches high, and rather slender, has a large head and features small, with a direct and steady look when addressed.—He took with him a change of good summer and winter clothing. Any person securing the above described man, so that the subscriber can obtain him, shall receive 50 dollars if taken in the state, if taken out of the state 40 dollars, together with all reasonable charges.

PHILOGRINE TILGHMAN.
Talbot County, July 29. (A 2) d

Forty Dollars Reward.

STOLEN or strayed on Sunday night, the 29th instant, from the country seat lately belonging to Richard Hindman, on the Harford road, a bay HORSE, five years old; has a white stripe down his face, and a very small white spot on his right thigh; his hind feet are also white, and are a little sore, occasioned by accord. Whoever takes up the said horse, and returns him to the subscriber, in Baltimore, shall receive Thirty Dollars reward, and if stolen, a further reward of Forty Dollars is offered for the apprehension of the thief, to be paid on conviction.

LEWIS ATTEBURY.
August 8 d

50 Dollars Reward,

STRAYED away or Stolen, on the night of the 6th instant, from the subscriber living near the Ferry, on Jones's Falls, a large bay HORSE, heavy made, like a chaise or wagon horse, about 7 years old, has some white on the hind part of each hind foot, just above the hoof, and a mixture of white if closely examined, on the right eye; is shod all round.—He will pace, trot, and rack tolerably well, and is used to drawing. Whoever takes up said horse, and delivers him to the subscriber, near the foot bridge, over Jones's Falls, adjacent to this city, shall have 10 dollars, or if stolen, for the horse and thief, so as the thief is convicted, 50 dollars.

EDWARD BROWN.

LITERATURE.

At the Leipzig and Frankfort Book and Stationary store, No. 96, North Howard-street, Baltimore, will be constantly kept and imported for sale,

All sorts of BOOKS,

Which have been and will be published in Germany.

Commission business, for the European and American continent, as well as for the East and West Indies, will be strictly attended to.

The editors and proprietors of English and German newspapers in America, are requested to insert the above in their respective papers, and to send the numbers thereof, to the above-mentioned bookstore.

N. B. There will likewise be published as above, a good German newspaper, as soon as a sufficient number of supporters will send in their respective names and residences. The editors of it will be the same persons who formerly owned in Brussels, that generally esteemed paper entitled, L'Impartial European ou Gazette Generale des Pays Bas; and who were deported as friends of truth and liberty, with Carnot, Pichegru, Barthelemi, &c. on the 18th and 19th Fructidor, 1797.

April 25 eo

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, from on board the brig Sophia, in October last, a bright mulatto man, who calls himself WILLIAM HILL.—he is 23 years of age, about 6 feet 1 inch high, has a large scar under his left eye, and a down look when spoken to—fond of spirituous liquors. As the above fellow has taken with him a number of clothes, it is not necessary to describe his dress, as it is probable he may change it.

Wm. H. HANSON,
No. 69, Cumberland Row.

N. B. I forewarn all persons from harboring or concealing said fellow, he being a slave.

December 3 eo

On the 2d of this month,

HAVE my indented servant, Christian Stuur, permission to go and see his friends in Baltimore; he was to return on the 6th, but as he not yet made his appearance, I conclude he means to abscond. This servant is a Hanoverian by birth, and arrived from Amsterdam 3d March last. He is very round shouldered, marked much by the small pox, about 5 feet 10 inches high, light hair and eyes, with a very fair complexion. He calls himself a farmer, but is quite ignorant of that occupation, and was dressed in long blue broad cloth coat, striped shirt and trowsers, and half boots, the other clothes are not recollected. Whoever will deliver the above servant to Mr. Andrew Buchanan, in Baltimore, shall receive a reward of fifteen dollars.
