JOHN STICKNEY,
No. 1, Pratt-street, near the lower bridge
Where may be had,
STICKNEY'S PATENT BRASS PUMP BOXES,
For ships, which are warranted not to get out of order for a number of years. Their utility has been proved by the many masters of vessels, who constantly use and prefer them in direct violation to the wishes of those whose interest guides their tongues, and for the sake of pocketing a few dollars, endeavor to frustrate the introduction of one of the greatest safeguards and improvements made in the nautical line for many years. Those facts may be corroborated by seeing them in use on board Capt. Deagle's Norfolk and Capt. Mann's George-town Packets, as well as Salem, Boston and various other vessels.

September 9 eo4t

On the 2d of this month,
I GAVE my indentee servant, Christian Suter, permission to go and see his friends in Baltimore; he was to return on the 6th, but as he not yet made his appearance, I conclude he means to abscond. This servant is a Hanoverian by birth, and arrived from Amsterdam in March last. He is very round shouldered, marked much by the small pox, about 5 feet 10 inches high, light hair and eyes, with a very fair complexion. He calls himself a farmer, but is quite ignorant of that occupation, and was dressed in long blue broad cloth coat, striped shirt, and trowsers, and half boots, the other clothes are not recollected. Whoever will deliver the above servant to Mr Andrew Buchanan, in Baltimore, shall receive a reward of fifteen dollars.
