"and knew not" the bounty which his right "hand" dispensed.

Never was there a more liberal or a more disinterested friend. So remote was he from affecting degrees of attachment, of which his heart was unconscious, that his looks almost invariably indicated more than his words expressed, and both his words and his looks came far, very far, short of his munificence and noble deeds.

His private life alone has been here adverted to. Civil and commercial society repoled many trusts in him, in the discharge of which there are multitudes more competent to appreciate his usefulness and assert his merits than the writer of this article. The ecclesiastical community, of which he was a distinguished and ornamental member, and in which he occupied one of the highest stations, will long have reason to deplore the privation of his faithful services, his zealous exertions, and his unremitted devotion to its interests.

Both in public and in private life—both in a social and in an individual capacity,—there was a firmness, a consistency, an activity, a perseverance, in him, which few possess. His resolutions were framed and he was true to them. One of them, and that not the least important, was, to be content to resent on doing good; and rarely, indeed, could he in truth adopt that lamentation of the Roman emperor, "I have lost a day."

But it is enough. The virtuous and ingenuous, whom the name of President George Salmon may attract to the period of this sketch, will rejoice that he forever with his Maker; but cheerfully they will sorrow as others do who have no hope.

"His worthiness is in Heaven, and his record is on high."

Rehoboth Camp, 4th August, 1807.

The great and good order of the two Camp Meetings held in Georgetown between Perry Hall and the Long Calm, near the Philadelphia Road, have induced a number of the Members of the Gospel from Lewes and Sussex from Center, to hold a third meeting on the same spot; to begin on Thursday, the 8th of October next, and continue until Tuesday the 13th. It will be well for those who bring waggons to the camp ground to take a little more straw than they will want for their own use, that they may have the pleasure of giving to those that have none.

☞ Fashionable Complaint. ☜

The public were advertised a few weeks ago, that the Fashionable Complaint, or Venereal, could be removed, and radically cured, without any use whatever of MERCURY.

I would now respectfully inform the public, that I have attended to this affair, for three or four months; and have seen the effect of this new, and, as I conceive, happier method of cure

Cases of every description I have seen, to all appearance, radically healed. Many old complaints, which had been treated by mercurial prescriptions, but which, for some reason or other, did not prove effectual, have, by this new method, been entirely healed quite readily. Out of the number of thirty persons, who have applied for aid, from this new method, some in every stage of the disease, have been, I really believe, thoroughly cured. I feel the greatest assurance, that all those who have applied, and who pay faithful attention to their directions, either have, or will be safely restored, by Doctor Herschel's Cordial, and other mild prescriptions, to their former state of health. And I have such confidence in the candour and integrity of the gentleman who manages this business in behalf of Dr. H. that I do not believe he makes use of mercury in any shape or form. Not pretending to account for these things, I only state those facts which have occurred within my own knowledge, that those who may have occasion, might make what use of them they think proper.

N. B. Any person who may have the curiosity to enquire of this affair, any more particularly, will be referred to me, by calling at Dr. Herschel's Dispensary Office, directly opposite St. Peter's Church, in German Lane.

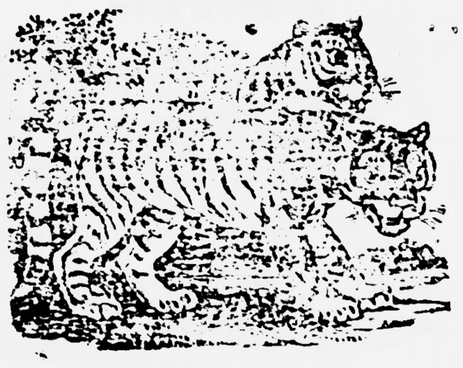
EXHIBITION.

To be seen at Mr. N. Hussey's, No. 7, Howard street, from 8 o'clock in the morning, until sunset,

Two Royal Tigers,

MALE & FEMALE.



THESE curious animals lately imported from Surat, (in Asia) are the first ever reached any part of this continent. On their arrival they were not a year old. They are nine feet in length and three feet in height. Their crowns designate them as royal, and peculiar to Asia. When full grown, their bulk is tremendous, much superior in size to a Lion and of prodigious strength. Their color is a bright yellow, beautifully marked with long stripes of black, which run the same direction as their ribs with others across their thighs. The Tigers in Asia are the scourge of that country; insidious, blood-thirsty, and malevolent, preferring human flesh for their sustenance to that of wild beasts. They lurk among the bushes, and bound on their prey; if they succeed and are undisturbed, they plunge their heads into the bodies of the animals, up to their eyes, as if it were to satiate themselves with blood, before they tear them to pieces. It attacks the Lion or Elephant, and is truly said to be the most powerful animal in the world

The Ladies and Gentlemen of this town and vicinity, are respectfully invited to lose no time in viewing these extraordinary animals, as there never was, and probably never will be exhibited animals, so worthy of their attention. As the trouble and expence of these animals is enormous, it is impossible the Keeper can tarry longer in a place than while he meets with encouragement: he therefore solicits their speedy attention.

N. B. The cage in which the Tigers are confined is very strong, so that no danger may be apprehended from them.

☞ Admittance, 25 cents for grown persons—Children half price.
